

INDEX

- Academic evaluation of performance management, 140–144
- Accountability, 100, 151–152
 - challenge of, 122–123
- Administration Boards, 13
- Administrative decentralisation, 88
- Administrative delegation, 89
- Administrative politicisation, 38
- Administrative processes approach, 20–21
- Africa, performance management in, 123–125
- African National Congress (ANC), 2
- Afrikanerisation of public service, 13–14
- Agencification, 88, 120
- Annual Performance Plan (APP), 129
- Apartheid
 - Balkanisation, 16
 - bureaucracy, 12–13, 15
 - logic around human rights issues, 21
 - public service, 51
 - regime, 21
 - rule, 49
- Apex priorities, 134
- 'Atlas of the Politics–Administration Dichotomy' (Georgiou), 44
- Auditor General (AG), 111
- Authority, 89

- Behavioural approach, 118
- Benchmarking, 117, 120–121
- Blame avoidance strategy, 112
- British Westminster system, 12
- Broader governance issues, 150
 - accountability, 151–152
 - centralisation vs. decentralisation, 152–153
 - downplaying of politics, 150
 - Elite formation, 151
 - independent verification of data, 153
 - isomorphic mimicry, 152
 - neo-patrimonialism, 151
 - transferability of developed countries' reforms to developing countries, 150
- Bureaucratic autonomy, 111
- Bureaucratic performance, 47

- Cadre Deployment policy, 156
- Cape Provincial Administration (CPA), 20
- Cape Town City Council, 36
- Cash bonuses, 127
- Cause-effect, 119
- Centralisation, 152–153
- Chief Director (CD), 100
- Civil Service Commission (CSC), 18
- Collaborative model, 45
- Collusive model, 45, 84, 157
- Commission of Administration (CoA), 9, 18–20
- Complementarity model, 37
- Constitution of Republic of South Africa Act, 3
- Constitutional Assembly, 3, 22
- Constitutional Court, 28
- Conventional academic wisdom, 116
- Conventional theory, 91
- Coping organisations, 118
- Correlational analysis, 121–122
- Country ownership, 122
- Craft organisations, 118
- Credibility of performance management, 153
- Cumbersome appointment process, 100

- de facto Prime Minister (see Mbeki, Thabo)
- Decentralisation, 88, 152–153
- Decentralisation of Managerial Responsibility and Accountability, 95
- Delegation, 87–88
 - bureaucratic autonomy and delegation, 91–92
 - delegation in developing countries, 92–94
 - delegation of powers, 106–109
 - developed vs. developing countries, 92
 - implementation of, 97–100
 - issue of Blame avoidance strategy, 112
 - literature review, 88
 - management empowerment debate in South Africa, 94
 - online survey, 90–91
 - patron–client networks, 110–111
 - political–administrative relationships, 87–88
 - political–administrative system, 109–110
 - of powers, 89
 - PSC assessment of implementation of human resources and financial delegations, 100–102
 - resurgence of delegation initiatives, 102–103
 - in South Africa, 88
 - in South Africa government, 94–97
 - state of compliance by departments with delegation directives, 104–106
- Democratic Alliance (DA), 28, 83
- Democratic Centralism, 110
- Democratic rule, 4
- Department of Cooperation and Development (DCD), 13
- Department of Labour (DoL), 140
- Department of Planning, Monitoring and Evaluation (DPME), 8, 128
- Department of Public Service and Administration (DPSA), 8, 160
- Deployment Committee, 82
- Deputy director-general (DDG), 56
- Developing countries, 5, 44–45
 - delegation in, 92
 - performance management in, 121–122
 - political–administrative typology in, 45–46
 - transferability of developed countries’ reforms to, 150
- Development state, 47–49, 54
- Devolution, 88, 95
 - administrative powers to heads of department while retaining strategic powers, 161
 - of human resources powers to heads of departments, 161–162
- Dichotomy, persistence of, 36–37
- Directors General (DGs), 17, 94
- Dismissal, 58–59
- Downsizing, 120
- Eastern Cape Province, 143
- Education, 133
- Elite formation, 151
- Emasculation of PSC, 24–26
- Embedded Autonomy*, 48
- Employee empowerment, 91
- Employee performance, 130
- Employee Performance Management and Development System (EPMDS), 128
- Employment Equity Act, 57, 107–108, 156
- Empowerment of department of Public Service and Administration, 27

- Executive authorities (EAs), 50, 111
 - perspectives of EAs on HR and financial delegations, 100–101
 - relationship between HoDs and EAs, 57–58
- Executive authorities, 161
- Executive council (EXCO), 52
- Favouritism, 18, 138, 141, 149, 163
- Final Constitution, 3, 27–30
- Final Phase to democratisation, 21
- Financial delegations
 - HoDs perspectives on HR and, 101–102
 - perspectives of EAs on HR and, 100–101
- Formal politicisation, 38
- Functional politicisation, 38
- Gaming, 117–118, 149–150
- Gauteng Province, 141
- Generic management theory, 110
- Genesis of organisational performance management, 130
- ‘Good Enough Governance’, 94
- Government and Public Policy (GAPP), 6, 80
- ‘Government efficiency’, 116
- Government performance improvement, 116
- Gross Domestic Product (GDP), 47
- Growth, Employment and Redistribution (GEAR), 53–54
- Heads of Department (HoDs), 4
 - perspectives on HR and financial delegations, 101–102
 - relationship between EAs and, 57–58
- Health, 133
- Human resource (HR), 46
 - devolution of human resources powers to heads of departments, 161–162
 - functions, 51
 - HoDs perspectives on HR and financial delegations, 101–102
 - perspectives of EAs on HR and financial delegations, 100–101
 - policy in public service, 56–57
- Human Resource Management (HRM), 7, 89
- Human Resources Powers of HoDs, 162
- Human Sciences Research Council (HSRC), 51
- Hybrid approach, 69
- Ideal-type bureaucracy, 34–35
- Incentive system, 137
- Inconsistent allocation of performance assessment, 149
- Independent authorities, 13
- Independent verification of data, 153
- Individual performance evaluation, 134–135
- Individual performance management, 126
 - directive, performance management and development system for heads of department, 128–129
 - further changes to SMS performance management system, 128
 - performance management and development system for members of senior management system, 130
 - performance management system for SMS, 127–128
- Inspection Enforcement Services (IES), 140
- Integrated Financial Management System (IFMS), 8
- Integrated model, 46
- Integrated Performance Management System (IPMS), 123

- Interim Constitution, 21
 - Provincial Service Commissions, 23–24
 - Public Administration in Interim Phase, 22–23
- Interim Constitution, 3
- Interim Phase, 21
- Internal public administration issues, 146
 - capacity, 148–149
 - compliance, 149
 - disjuncture between organisational and individual performance, 148
 - gaming, 149–150
 - managers management, 147–148
 - measurement of targets, 146–147
 - outputs vs. outcomes, 147
- International Political Science Association (IPSA), 150
- Intrusive model, 46, 84, 156–157
- Isomorphic mimicry, 121, 152
- Jamaica, performance management in, 124–125
- Joined-up Government, 17
- Key Government Focus Area (KGFA), 129
- Key Result Areas (KRAs), 127
- Limpopo Province, 141
- Lip-service, 21
- Malfeasance*, 93, 98
- Management autonomy, 88
- Management empowerment debate in South Africa, 94
- Management Performance Assessment Tool (MPAT), 131, 145, 150
- ‘Managerialism’, 88
- Mandela, Nelson, 4, 49
 - ANC under, 109
 - intrusive model and, 156–157
 - Presidency, 84
- Manipulation of reported results, 117
- Mbeki, Thabo, 4, 49
 - ANC and, 30
 - intrusive model and, 84, 156–157
 - Mbeki-type intrusive model, 157
 - political–administrative framework, 65
 - Presidency, 96–97
 - signing of PA, 134, 159
- Medium Term Strategic Framework (MTSF), 72, 132
- Member of Executive Council (MEC), 2, 27, 50
- Merit-based career system, 40
- Meritocratic appointment, 47
- Meritocratic criteria, 38
- Meritocratic recruitment, 46
- Minister for Public Service and Administration (MPSA), 22
- Ministerial Programme of Action, 132
- Ministry of Performance, Monitoring and Evaluation (MPME), 131, 144–145
- Mixed methods approach, 7
- Multi-party negotiations, 2–3
- National Assembly, 3, 28
- National Council of Provinces (NCOP), 28
- National Development Plan (NDP), 99, 132
 - draft, 67–70
 - final, 70
- National Implementation Framework, 79
- National Party (NP), 2, 12
- National Planning Commission (NPC), 66
 - draft National Development Plan, 67–70
 - final National Development Plan, 70
- National School of Government (NSG), 164
- Native Urban Areas Act, 12

- Neo-patrimonialism, 93, 111, 142, 151
 during Zuma Presidency, 158
- New Employment Service, 126
- New Public Administration Initiative (NPAI), 21
- New Public Governance, 42
- New Public Management (NPM), 4, 41, 88, 115–116
 impact of, 41–42
 ‘post’ NPM studies, 42–44
 reforms, 120
- New Public Service Regulations,
 51–52
- Northcote-Trevelyan report, 34
- Organisation of Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD), 64
- Organisational culture, 119
- Organisational performance, 130
 genesis of organisational performance management, 130–131
 monitoring and evaluation, 131
 process of organisational
 performance management, 131–132
 service delivery, 132–133
- Orwellian Protection of Information
 Act, 2
- Parliamentary Monitoring Group, 8
- Patronage systems, 39–40
 Patronage-based politics, 110
 ‘Patronage’ political approaches, 93
- Patron–client networks, 110–111
- Pay-roll system, 8
- Performance agreements (PA), 146–147
 signing of, 134
- Performance management, 115–116
 academic evaluation of performance management
 in South Africa, 140–144
 in Africa, 123–125
 benchmarking, 120–121
 broader governance issues, 150–153
 challenge of accountability, 122–123 in developing countries, 121–122
 evaluation of, 133
 using evidence in policy and practice, 145
 evolution of performance management in democratic
 South Africa, 125–126
 focusing on indicators, 117–118 general government evaluation of, 135–140
 individual performance evaluation,
 134–135
 internal public administration issues, 146–149
 literature review, 116
 monitoring and evaluation, 144
 performance management
 implementation in South
 African Public Service,
 126–133
 politics and performance management, 144–145
 in South Africa, 125
 South Africa, 145–146
 studies on performance, 119–120
 systems, 117
- Performance Management and Development System
 (PMDS), 127
- Performance measurement, 150
- Performance Paradox, 117
- Persistence of dichotomy, 36–37
- Personnel and Information System
 (PERSAL), 8
- Planning, Organising, Staffing,
 Directing, Coordinating,
 Reporting, Budgeting
 (PODSCORB), 21
- Policy goals, 117
- Political decentralisation, 88
- Political rights of heads of department, limitation of, 162

- Political-administrative relationships,
2, 4, 15–16, 52, 87–88,
109–110, 156
- administrative processes approach, 20–21
- Afrikanerisation of public service,
13–14
- Anglo-Boer War, 12
- bureaucratic performance, 47
- complementarity model, 37
- demise of Public Service Commission, 26–27
- developing countries, 44–45
- development state, 47–49
- emasculatation of PSC, 24–26
- empowerment of department of Public Service and Administration, 27
- evolution of, 12
- final constitution, 27–30
- interim constitution, 21–24
- meritocratic appointment, 47
- impact of NPM, 41–42
- persistence of dichotomy, 36–37
as policy issue, 71–78
- political-administrative typology in developing countries, 45–46
- politicians and bureaucrats, 35
- politicisation of Public Service,
38–40
- politics-administration distinction, 35–36
- ‘post’ NPM studies, 42–44
- ‘professionalising’, 85
- Public Administration, 33–34
- public sector reform in 1980s,
16–18
- Public Service Commission/
Commission for Administration, 18–20
- seminal model of, 83
- service delivery, 16
- skills shortages in public service,
14–15
- in South Africa, 49–60
- typologies of, 37–38
- typology of, 84
- Weber’s ideal-type bureaucracy,
34–35
- Politicisation, 38, 90
- OECD, 64
- political-administrative interface,
63
- President Zuma’s model, 65
of public service, 38–40
South African Constitution, 62
in South African Public Service, 61
- Politics
delegation of, 89, 106–109
downplaying of, 150
- Power-sharing mechanisms, 3
- Presidency, 131–132
- President Zuma’s model, 65
- Presidential Review Commission
(PRC), 25, 51, 52
- Principal functionaries, 103
- Principles of Public Administration and Financial Delegations, 102
- Procedural organisations, 118
- Production organisations, 118
- Professional management, 88
- Professional Protocol, 53
- Professionalisation of public service,
106
- Programmatic approach, 93
- Provincial Review Report, 50, 54, 95, 126
- Provincial Service Commissions,
23–24, 95
- Public Administration, 2, 16, 33–34,
94, 118, 155–156
in Interim Phase, 22–23
- Public Administration and Management Act (PAMA),
165
- Public Administration in Final
Constitution, 28–30
- Public Affairs Research Institute
(PARI), 6, 58

- Public Audit Amendment Act, 139
- Public Finance Management Act (PFMA), 59–60, 97
- Public hospitals, 142
- Public management reform process, 122
- Public sector reform, 5–7, 50
 - in 1980s, 16–18
- Public service, 89
 - Afrikanerisation of, 13–14
 - HR policy in, 56–57
 - politicisation of, 38–40
 - skills shortages in, 14–15
- Public Service Act (PSA), 16, 49–50, 57, 96, 127, 161
 - PSA Amendment Act, 59
- Public Service Amendment Bill, 79, 163
- Public Service and Administration, empowerment of
 - department of, 27
- Public Service Commission (PSC), 8, 9, 18–20, 60–61
 - assessment of implementation of human resources and financial delegations, 100
 - demise of, 26–27
 - emasculatation of, 24–26
 - HoDs perspectives on HR and financial delegations, 101–102
 - intervention, 77–78
 - in promoting norms and standards, and monitoring recruitment processes, 68
 - creating administrative head of public service, 68–69
 - perspectives of EAs on HR and financial delegations, 100–101
- Public Service Law Amendment Act, 27, 50, 95, 126
- Public Service Motivation, 118
- Public Service Regulations (PSR), 51–52, 58, 96
- ‘Qualitative data’, 8
- Quantitative target systems, 116
- Quantitative technique, 7–8
- Ramaphosa, Cyril, 4, 66, 82
 - National Implementation Framework, 79
 - political-administrative relationships under, 79
 - Presidency, 78
 - reforms, 160
 - Zondo Commission, 80–83
- Ratchet effect, 117
- Rational model, 118
- Rationalisation, 17
- Reconstruction and Development Programme (RDP), 53
- Recruitment, 106–109
 - Reinventing Government*, 89, 94
- Republic of South Africa (RSA), 2
- Republic of South Africa Constitution Act (RSA), 17
- Resurgence of delegation initiatives, 102–103
- Rightsizing, 54
- Rule-of-law-oriented politically neutral bureaucracies, 84
- ‘Scientific management’, 116
- Selection, 106–109
- Self-governing territories (SGTs), 13
- Self-Government Act, 13
- Senior executive systems (SEs), 56
- Senior management service (SMS), 4, 55–56, 96, 127
 - further changes to SMS performance management system, 128
 - performance management system for, 127–128
- Service delivery, 16, 132–133
- Skills shortages in public service, 14–15
- South Africa, 2
 - academic evaluation of performance management in, 140–144

- appointment of special advisers, 59–60
- constitutional and legislative framework, 49–50
- contract appointments, 55
- delegation in South Africa
 - government, 94–97
- developmental state, 54
- dismissal, 58–59
- evolution of, 125–126
- GEAR, 53–54
- HR policy in public service, 56–57
- management empowerment debate
 - in, 94
- open competition, 55
- performance management in, 125
- political–administrative relationships in, 49
- Public Administration areas in, 3–4
- public sector reform, 50–53
- relationship between HoDs and EAs, 57–58
- rightsizing, 54
- SMS, 55–56
- South African bureaucracy, 111–112
- South African Constitution, 59, 62
- South African Public Service
 - individual performance management, 126–128
 - organisational performance, 130–133
 - performance management implementation in, 126
- South African Qualification Authority (SAQA), 108
- Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Relevant and Time bound principles (SMART principles), 129
- State of Nation Address (SONA), 78
- State Security Agency (SSA), 108
- Strategic behavior, 117
- Strategic departments, 142
- Strategic management, 94
- ‘Structural’ NPM reforms, 120
- Sub-optimisation, 117
- ‘Sunset clause’, 51
- Superintendent-General of Education, 2
- Technical Indicator Guidelines, 140
- Technocratic systems, 137
- Tenets of system, 137
- Three-tier system, 22
- Three-tier unitary system, 12
- Threshold effect, 117
- Total Strategy, 17
- Towards a Ten-Year Review*, 96
- Traditional personnel management, 89
- Transferability of developed countries’ reforms to developing countries, 150
- Tricameral Parliament, 17
- Tyranny of Merit, The, 44
- United Democratic Front (UDF), 17
- United States of America (USA), 35
- University of Cape Town (UCT), 66–67
- Verwoerdian ideology, 15
- Voluntary Severance Programmes (VSPs), 54
- Weak accountability frameworks, 136
- Weber’s ideal-type bureaucracy, 34–35
- Weberian bureaucracy, 47
- Western Cape Education Department (WCED), 143
- Western Cape Province, 143
- Westminster system, 17, 89
- White Paper on Training and Education, 95
- White Paper on Transformation of Public Service (WPTPS), 25, 27, 50, 94, 125
- White Papers on Human Resources Management, 126

'Whole of Government Approach', 121
Working Group, 26
World Development Report, 122
Zondo Commission, 80–83

Zuma, Jacob, 4
administration, 84–85, 113
democratic centralism, 110
Presidency, 82, 111, 113, 142, 142
rule, 66
signed PAs, 144