

INDEX

- Abbott's theory, 62–63
- Academic analytics, 159, 160
- Academic Profession in Europe:
Responses to Societal Challenges (EUROAC),
60, 65, 66
- Academic(s), 70
- capitalism, 25–27, 28, 180, 181
  - community, 27, 67–68, 199, 211, 213
  - freedom, 186, 190, 192
  - Humboldtian perspective, 69
  - Larson's perspective, 68
  - from medical sciences, 70
  - profession, 60–61, 67–68
    - changing, 64–67
    - diversity and fragmentation of academic profession,
68–72
    - sociology of professions as academic field, 61–64
- Agency theory, 78
- AIR. See Association for Institutional Research
(AIR)
- American Productivity and Quality
Center (APQC), 163
- advancement levels in, 171
- Analytical intelligence, 158
- AoIR. See Association of Internet
Researchers (AoIR)
- Appointment procedures, 45
- function, 51
  - for professorships, 45–46
    - configuring professorship, 46
    - negotiating resources and wages, 47
    - selecting candidate, 46
    - social dimension of, 47
    - types of criteria in, 52
- Approaches to learning in workplace, 249–250
- Approaches to Studying Inventory
(ASI), 249
- Approaches to Work Questionnaire
(AWQ), 249–250
- canonical correlation analysis, 254,
258, 259
  - confirmatory factor analysis, 253
  - correlation coefficients between respondents' scale scores
on, 258
  - descriptive statistics for respondents' scale scores
on, 258
  - online survey, 252
  - standardized regression coefficients, 260, 261
- APQC. See American Productivity and Quality Center
(APQC)
- ASI. See Approaches to Studying
Inventory (ASI)
- Association for Institutional
Research (AIR), 157
- Association of Internet Researchers
(AoIR), 201
- AWQ. See Approaches to Work
Questionnaire (AWQ)

- Bernstein's theories, 142
Bildung, 146–147
Bildung-Didaktik tradition, 146
 Bounded rationality, 128–130
 Branding, 108–109
 Bureaucracy-professionalism in research universities, 27
- Canadian Institutional Research and Planning Association
 (CIRPA), 157
- Canonical correlation analysis, 254,
 258–259
- CAP. See Changes in Academic Profession (CAP)
- Capitalism, 184, 189
   academic, 25–27, 28, 180, 181
- Carnegie study, 65
- CEQ. See Course Experience
 Questionnaire (CEQ)
- CFI. See Comparative fit index (CFI)
- Changes in Academic Profession
 (CAP), 60, 64–66
- CIRPA. See Canadian Institutional
 Research and Planning Association (CIRPA)
- Co-evolution, 123
- Cognitive dimension, 82
- Collective consumption goods, 23
- College admissions, 205
- Commitment to relativism, 81
- Commodification, 180
   differentiated market university, 183, 187
   from capital's differentiation, 183–185
   to universities' differentiation, 185–192
   university, 181–183
- Communication, 10, 41 channels, 42, 43
   online, 199
   scientific, 55
   use of information, 90
- Comparative fit index (CFI), 253
- Competencies, 163 competency-based curriculum thinking, 145
   fictitious results for development, 175
- Complex theory
   for higher education systems, 121–124
   systems theory, 121, 123
- Complexity, 121
   external, 122
   internal, 122
   theory, 122
- Conditional programs, 43
- Constant management, 212
- Constitution of values, 51
- Contemporary higher education research and practice critical curriculum theories, 146–148
   critical realist perspective on curriculum theories, 139–141
   debates on curriculum theories, 148–149
   nature of normative curriculum theories, 143–145
   rethinking divide between normative and critical curriculum theories, 149–151 shaping of curriculum theories and higher education, 141–143
- Contextual intelligence, 158, 173
- Contingency theory, 78
- Course Experience Questionnaire
 (CEQ), 249
- Crip theory, 229, 230–231
- Critical approach, 142–143, 147, 153, 229
- Critical curriculum theories, 146–151

- Critical realist perspective on curriculum theories, 139–141
- Critics of functionalism (1960–1970), 61–62
- Cross-situational consistency, 6
- Cultural dimension of disability, 236–238
- Curriculum theories, 139
     critical realist perspective on, 139–141
     debates on, 148–149
     in higher education, 139 shaping of, and higher education, 141–143
- Cyber-ethnography, 198
- Data mining, 201
- d/Deaf culture, 236, 237
- Decision programs, 41
- Decision-making procedures, 43
- Decoupling, 110, 111, 112, 129–131
- Delphi approach, 157, 174
- Denomination, 46, 49
- Diagnostic dimension of disability, 232–233
- Dialectical operations, 84
- Differentiated Market university, 183, 187
     from capital's differentiation, 183–185
     to universities' differentiation, 185–192
- Digital ethnography, 198
- Disability, 228
     crip theory, 230–231
     cultural dimension, 236–238 diagnostic dimension, 232–233 disability-as-identity, 231 economic manifestation, 235–236 environmental dimension, 234–235 identity, 228
     as intersectional social identity, 238 legal manifestation, 233–234 medical manifestation, 232
     queer theory, 230–231
     stigma, 235
     theoretical borderlands, 229–230
     theoretical lenses, 229
- Disidentification, 230–231
- Diversity, 128 of academic profession, 68–72 response and functional, 130
- Dualism, 81
- ECAR. See EDUCAUSE Center for Analytics and Research (ECAR)
- Economic manifestation of disability, 235–236
- eDelphi method, 174
- Educational psychology, 142
- EDUCAUSE Center for Analytics and Research (ECAR), 160
- Emotions, 48
- Empiricism, 140
- Enhanced capital enterprises, 180, 184, 191
- 'Enterprises' typology, 180
- Environmental dimension of disability, 234–235
- Epistemological theory, 140–141
- Epistemology, 82
- ESF. See European Science Foundation (ESF)
- Essentialist and criterion-referenced vision, 103
- Ethical review board. See Institutional review board (IRB)
- Ethnography, 204
     See also Virtual ethnography
- EUROAC. See Academic Profession in Europe: Responses to

- Societal Challenges
(EUROAC)
- EuroHESC, 65
- European Science Foundation (ESF), 65
- Evaluation procedures, 40, 53, 55
- Evaluation-based decision-making procedures
  - dimensions, 44
    - matter-of-fact dimension,
50–54
    - social dimension, 47–50
    - temporal dimension, 45–47
  - organizational decision-making
procedures, 43–44
  - universities as formal organizations, 41–43
- Exogenous conditions, 127
- Exploratory factor analysis, 254
- External complexity, 122

- Flexible governance, 25, 26, 28–29
- Formal learning, 248
  - See also* Informal learning
- Formal organizations, universities as,
41–43
- Formal power, 48
- Formal structures, 41, 42, 44
- Fragmentation of academic profession, 68–72
- “Freigabeantrag”, 46
- Functional and strategic definition, 103
- Functionalism and symbolic interactionism,
(1930–1960), 61
- Functionalist approach, 61

- Generative strategies, 13, 14
- German higher education, developments in, 8–9
- German universities, phases of appointment procedures
  - for professorships in,
49–50
- Global public goods, 24
- Global value chain, 184
- Goal programs, 43
- Goodness-of-fit index (GFI), 253

- HE. See Higher education (HE)
- Hierarchical influence, 50
- Hierarchy, 42
- Higher education (HE), 2, 24, 78–79, 199, 200, 205
  - approaches to studying in, 249
  - developments in German HE, 8–9
  - governance reform models, 25
  - institutions, 158–159
    - networks, 219, 220, 221–222
  - network paradigm and, 222
  - NPM development in, 26
    - academic capitalism, 26–27
    - managerialism, 26
  - organizations, 78
  - possibility of classification, 66
  - potentials and limitations of qualitative and quantitative studies, 3–6
  - research, 138, 156
    - organizational wisdom through,
92–93
  - scholars, 139
  - scholarship, 92
  - sector, 22
  - shaping of curriculum theories and, 141–143
  - in society, 138
  - systems, 120
    - complex theory for, 121–124
- Holistic individual developmental theories, 84
- Horizontal differentiation, 120, 124, 132
- Humboldtian model, 190

- Identity
- disability as intersectional social, 238
  - disability-as-identity, 231
  - identity-building process, 102
  - negotiations, 107–108
  - neo-institutional definition, 109
  - social identity, 238
  - See also* Organizational identity
- Image, 105–106
- organizational, 101
  - production, 110
- Individuality, 146
- Individualized Education Programs, 234–235
- Informal learning, 248–249
- approaches
    - to learning in workplace, 249–250
    - to studying in higher education, 249
    - to workplace learning, 250–251
  - canonical correlation analysis, 254, 258–259
  - confirmatory factor analysis, 253–254
  - exploratory factor analysis, 254
  - online survey, 251–253
  - path analysis, 259–262
  - pattern factor matrix
    - for approaches to work questionnaire, 255–256
    - for workplace climate questionnaire, 257
  - perceptions of workplace climate, 250–251
  - psychometric properties, 253
- Informal power, 48
- Informal structures, 41
- Information, 81, 208
- management and developmental models for IR, 158–161
  - quality, 162
  - use, 90, 162
- Information technology (IT), 159
- Innovation circuits, 185
- Input-oriented conditional programs, 41–42
- Institutional research (IR), 156
- application of framework to measuring development, 174–176
  - developmental framework for, 156
  - framework validation, 174
  - information management and developmental models for, 158–161
  - new knowledge management framework for IR, 161–173
  - purpose of, 157–158
  - validation process for framework elements, 157
  - See also* Mixed-methods research (MMR)
- Institutional review board (IRB), 200, 210, 211
- Institutional/institutionalism, 123
- change, 100, 107
  - environment, 110
  - logics, 109
  - positioning, 109–111
  - process, 88
  - and relational nature, 100, 103
  - theory, 78
- Integration
- process of MMR, 13
  - strategies, 7
- Internal complexity, 122
- Internationalization, 69–70
- Interpersonal dimension, 82
- Intersectional social identity, disability as, 238
- Interview-based research, 249
- IR. See Institutional research (IR)
- IRB. See Institutional review board (IRB)
- Issues intelligence, 158, 173

- IT. See Information technology (IT)
- Journal of Curriculum Theorizing, The*, 146
- Knowledge, 48
- Knowledge management framework for IR, 161, 162
- APQC, 163
- levels of advancement, 171
- assessment of competency development, 173
- competencies and validation ratings, 169–170
- descriptive statements levels of development and, 172 for resource organizational culture, 173
- dimension and elements, 163
- resources and relationship to IR's mission, 162
- validation ratings
functions and, 166
organizational sectors and,
164–165
resources and, 167–168
- Larson's perspective, 68
- Learning organization, 28–29
- Legal manifestation of disability, 233–234
- “Loosely Coupled System” to organizational actor, 111–112
- Luhmann's systems theory, 41
- Managerialism, 25–28, 60, 63, 64,
107, 125, 128
- Matter-of-fact dimension, 44, 50–54
- “Maturity” models, 159
- Meaning-making components for organizational systems, 86
- as outcome, 82–83
- processes, 82
- systems for individuals, 81
- Medical manifestation of disability, 232
- Meta-inferences
creation, 12
- data collection, 12–13
- first findings, 14–15
- integration strategies, 13–14
- integration or creation, 7
- Mirroring process, 102, 104
- image, 105–106
- “Mission creep”, 203
- Mixed methods
data analysis techniques, 7
- example study, 8–9
- Mixed-methods research (MMR), 3, 6–8
- creating meta-inferences, 12–15
- mixed-methods example study, 8–9
- potentials and limitations of qualitative and quantitative
studies, 3–6
- theoretical framework and research design, 9–12
- See also* Institutional research (IR)
- MMR. See Mixed-methods research
(MMR)
- Money, 48
- “Multi-cephalous”, 86
- Mutual influence, 47–48
- Mutual negotiation, 49
- Mutual observation, 47–48
- National Innovation System, 180
- National University of Singapore
(NUS), 192
- Neo-institutional literature, 100
- Neoliberal university, 22–24, 25
- Network
antecedents, 220–222

- approach, 217
- characteristics, 218–219
- consequences, 220
- governance, 29–30
- and higher education studies, 222
- paradigm, 218
- social network analysis, 215–216
- New public governance (NPG), 30–31
- New public management (NPM), 21–22, 158–159
  - development in HE, 26–27
  - models of higher education
    - governance reform, 25
    - and neoliberal university, 22–24
    - organizing universities to reacting to, 28
      - flexible governance, 28–29
      - learning organization, 28–29
      - shared governance, 28
    - skepticism toward, 24
    - stakeholders, 29–32
- Niche, 120, 123, 125, 132
- Non-linearity, 123
- Normative curriculum theory, 143–145, 149–151
- NPG. See New public governance (NPG)
- NPM. See New public management (NPM)
- NUS. See National University of Singapore (NUS)
- Ontological theory, 140–141
- Open University, 251
- Operationalization, 53, 161
- Organizational branding, 101
- Organizational capacity, 160
- Organizational change, 107
- Organizational culture, 43–44, 101, 102
  - descriptive statements for resource, 173
- Organizational decision-making
  - procedures, 40, 43–44
- Organizational identity, 100, 101
  - further research, 113–115
  - method, 101–102
  - typology of studies, 102, 104
    - branding, 108–109
  - identity negotiations, 107–108
  - image, 105–106
  - institutional logics, 109
  - institutional positioning, 109–111
    - sensemaking, 106–107
  - of universities, 101
    - identity work, 112–113
    - organizations, 111–112
- Organizational image, 101
- Organizational learning, 78
- Organizational reputation, 101
- Organizational sagas, 101
- Organizational structures, 42
- Organizational systems, components
  - of meaning-making for, 86
- Organizational theories, 78
- Organizational wisdom, 88–92
  - through higher education research, 92–93
- Output-oriented goal programs, 41–42
- Passive management, 212
- Path analysis, 259–262
- Pattern factor matrix
  - for approaches to work
    - questionnaire, 255–256
  - for workplace climate
    - questionnaire, 257
- Personnel for organizational decisions, 42
- Policy and higher education systems, 121–122
- Polyarchy, 50
- Population ecology, 78

- Post-NPM paradigms, 24
 Practical political acumen, 89
 Pragmatism, 140
 Principal axis factoring, 254
 Procedural history, 45
 Production subsystem, 184
 Profession, 67–68
 Professionalization
   process, 62
   prototype of professional, 61
 Professorships, appointment procedures for, 45–46
   configuring professorship, 46
   negotiating resources and wages, 47 profile and equipment of professorship, 46
   selecting candidate, 46
 Public policy, 30–31
 Public value paradigm, 31–32

 Qualitative criteria, 52
 Qualitative research, 4, 5, 8
 Quantitative criteria, 52
 Quantitative research, 4, 5, 6, 8
 Queer theory, 229, 230–231
 Questioning professions and professionalism (1990),
   63–64

 Rating system, 100
 Reflecting process, 102, 104
   sensemaking, 106–107
 Relativism, 81
 Reputation, 49, 101, 105, 182
   organizational, 101
 Requisite variety, 126, 128–129, 131
 Research methods in terms of practice and policy,
   148–149
 Resilience, 124, 126
 Resilient university, 126
   decoupling, 129–131
   requisite variety, 128–129
   slack, 126–128
 Resource dependence, 78
 RMSEA. See Root mean square error of approximation
   (RMSEA)
 “Robustness”, 132 Root mean square error of approximation (RMSEA), 253

 Schimank’s theory of social interaction, 47–48
 Scopus search algorithm, 101
 Selection committees, 46–47, 54
 Selection criteria, 51, 52
 Self-authorship developmental process, 82
   dimensions, 84–85, 89
 Self-expression process, 102, 104
 Self-organization, 123
 Self-presentation process, 102, 104
   branding, 108–109
 Sensemaking, 106–107
 Sequential decision-making, 50
 Shared governance, 28
 Simple capital enterprises, 180, 184
 Slack, 126–128
 Social actor conception of organization, 87–88
 Social capital, 48–49
 Social dimension, 44, 47–50
 Social identity, 238
 Social institution of higher education,
   80
 Social interaction, Schimank’s theory of, 47–48
 Social media, 199–200, 204, 205–206
 Social network, 220–221
   analysis, 215–216
 Social responsibility, organizing for acting for social responsibility, 88–92

- components of meaning-making
  - for organizational systems, 86
- higher education, 78–79
- meaning-making as outcome, 82–83
- organizational wisdom through
  - higher education research, 92–93
- social actor conception of
  - organizing, 87–88
- systems of meaning-making for
  - individuals, 81
- wisdom, 84–86
- “Social Sciences” discipline, 101
- Social scientific phenomena, 120
- Social unobtrusiveness, 90
- Sociology
  - of education, 142
  - of professions, 60–61
    - as academic field, 61
    - critics of functionalism, 61–62
    - functionalism and symbolic interactionism, 61
    - questioning professions and professionalism, 63–64
    - systemic perspective, 62–63
- SPQ. See Study Process Questionnaire (SPQ)
- Stakeholders, 29, 100
  - network governance, 29–30
  - NPG, 30–31
  - public value paradigm, 31–32
- Strategic actor, 129–130
  - university as, 124–126
- Strategic triangle, 32
- Stresses, 112
- Study Process Questionnaire (SPQ), 250–251
- Sufficient criteria, 52
- Surface-rational approach, 254
- Systemic perspective (1970–1980), 62–63
- Systems theory, 123, 127
- Technical intelligence, 158
- Technological capital enterprise, 180, 185
- Technological infrastructure, 160
- Temporal dimension, 44, 45
  - configuring professorship, 46
  - negotiating resources and wages, 47
  - selecting candidate, 46
- Traits approach, 61
- Transaction cost theory, 78
- Transcendental operations, 84
- Transformative organizational change, 89–90
- Two-week pilot study, 206–207
- U.S. Presidential Immigration
  - Executive Order travel ban, 79
- Universities
  - as adaptive resilient organization
    - complex theory for higher education systems, 121–124
  - resilient university, 126–131
  - social scientific phenomena, 120
  - strategic actor vs. resilient actor, 131
  - commodification, 181–183
  - differentiation, 185–192
  - as formal organizations, 41–43
  - identity work, 112–113
  - organizations, 111–112
  - as strategic actor, 124–126
  - University of California, 201–202
  - university–industry
    - collaborations, 216, 217
- Uversity, 205–206
- Values
  - attribution, 53

- rationalization with competing institutional logics, 112–113
- selection of, 53
- Vertical differentiation, 124
- Virtual ethnography, 198
  - ethical concerns, 200
    - exemption from formal ethics boards, 202–203
    - existing guidelines for, 201–202
    - protection of participant anonymity, 203–204
  - future research, 211–212
  - logistical issues, 204–205
  - paucity of higher education studies, 200
  - Virtual Community*, 199
  - virtual field site, 205
    - methodological challenges, 206–210
    - methodology, 206
    - purpose of study and site selection, 205–206
- Vocationalization of academic programs, 27
- WCQ. See Workplace Climate Questionnaire (WCQ)
- “Wiederzuweisungsantrag”, 46
- Wisdom, 78, 83, 84–86, 88, 91
- Work Experience Questionnaire, 250
- Workplace
  - approaches to learning in, 249–250
  - learning, 248–249
    - approaches to, 250–251
  - perceptions of workplace climate, 250–251
- Workplace Climate Questionnaire (WCQ), 250, 251
  - canonical correlation analysis, 254, 258, 259
  - confirmatory factor analysis, 253
  - correlation coefficients between respondents’ scale scores on, 258
  - descriptive statistics for respondents’ scale scores on, 258
  - online survey, 252
  - standardized regression coefficients, 260, 261