

Index

- Abella Commission Report, 4
- Aboriginal groups, 12
- Access discrimination, 18, 19–21
- Adequate credentials, 3–4
- Agency
  - defined, 99
  - idea of, 99–100
- Alvesson, M., 27–28
- Asian immigrants, 4

- Beech, N., 23
- Bell, Carole, 56
- Benschop, Y., 126
- Blackler, F., 53
- Bonacich, E., 4

- Canada
  - Chinese immigrants, 54–56
    - employment equity, 125
    - immigration policy, 54–56
  - Canadian Pacific Railway (CPR), 54
  - Caucasian culture, 83
  - Cheng, L., 4
  - Chinese administration, in Hong Kong, 58–60
  - Chinese immigrants, in Canada
    - CPR, 54
    - discrimination, 55–56
    - head tax, 54
    - history of, 54–56
  - Chinese Immigration (Exclusion) Act, 54–55
  - Chinese Open Resource Network (CORN), 40–41
    - documents, 44
  - Chinese-owned organizations, 92–93
  - CIC. See Citizenship and Immigration Canada
  - Citizenship and Immigration Canada (CIC), 75
  - Clegg, S., 24, 72
  - CMS. See Critical Management Studies (CMS)
  - Cobb, J., 123
  - Colonial influence, 62–64
  - Community information, for integration, 84
  - Conformity, 130
  - Contributions, 125–127
  - CORN. See Chinese Open Resource Network (CORN)
  - Cost of immigration, 112–115
    - depression, 113–114
    - divorce and quarrels, 114–115
    - suicide attempt, 113
  - Co-workers (established immigrants), exploitation and, 94
  - CPR. See Canadian Pacific Railway (CPR)
  - Critical Management Studies (CMS), 24

- Critical Sensemaking, 32–38, 129–130
complex issues and, 127
formative contexts, 36
Foucauldian discourse, 37–38
framework, 126–127
future directions of, 129
organizational rules, 36–37
socio-psychological properties, 33–36
value of, 38
- Crown land, 55
- Cultural hegemony, 5
- Cultural rules, 88–89
- Data analysis, 46–50
- Data source triangulation, 44
- Deficient self, 78–79, 90, 92,
97, 103–104,
112–113
- Depression, 113–114
- Derrida, Jacques, 29–30
- Dim Sum Diaries*, 56
- Disciplinary power, 30
- Discrimination, 8–9, 108
access, 18, 19–21
color blindness toward, 55
treatment, 18, 19
- Dividing process, 30
- Divorce, 114–115
- Dominant discourse of integration, 82–91, 122, 123
- Economic exploitation, 4
- Educational degree, local, for integration, 84–85, 87
- Employment
assessment sessions, 80–81 equity, 125
inequality. See Workplace inequality
- Employment, outside of the mainstream, 92–93
- Employment Equity Act of Canada, 52
- Enactment of sensemaking, 34
- English, speaking, for integration, 87–88
- Ethical considerations, 45–46
- Exploitation, 91–97, 122
accepting the unacceptable,
95–96
Chinese-owned organizations, 92–93
co-workers (established immigrants), 94
harshness, 94–95
instrumental, 93–94
intra-ethnic, 91–96
voluntary, 96–97
- Festinger, L., 33
- Formative context, 36 conflicts, 52–53
overview, 51–52
See also Critical Sensemaking
- Foucauldian discourse, 5, 12, 30
- Foucault, M., 5, 27, 28–31
- Funding, multi-ethnic service
organizations, 74
government, 81–82
requirement of, 79–82
- Gender, identity work and,
104–105
- Goffman, E., 13, 33
- Government documents, 44
- Government funding, 81–82
- Gramsci, A., 5
- Hardy, C., 37, 40, 44, 48, 49
- Harshness, 94–95
- Helms Mills, J. C., 6, 22, 32, 36, 51, 53, 90, 100
- Hierarchal division, 121–122
- Hilde, Rosalie, 40
- Hollensbe, E. C., 23
- Hong Kong

- Chinese administration,
  - 58–60
  - colonial influence, 62–64
  - lifestyle discourse, 60–62
  - riot of 1967, 58–59
  - Sino-British Agreement, 59
  - workplace culture and work identity, 64–69
- Identity
  - changing, 23
  - defined, 12–13
- Identity construction, 18–19
  - sensemaking, 33–34
  - social constructionism, 21–24
- Identity labels, 12–13, 101–105
  - deficient self, 103–104
  - gender and, 104–105
- Identity work
  - critical, 25
  - organizational context of, 24–25
  - organizational shock and, 22
  - poststructuralist literature on, 24–26
  - social constructionism, 21–24
  - theories, 25
- Immigrants
  - citizenship, 2
  - defined, 12
  - first-generation, 13, 20–21
  - hierarchal division between mainstream
    - Canadians and, 121–122
  - integration of, 2
  - interview accounts of, 56–58
- Immigration, 1–2
  - cost of, 112–115
- Immigration policy
  - Canadian, 54–56, 75
  - United States, 1–2
- In-between self, 105–112
  - being Chinese, 108–109
  - exclusion, 109
  - helpful but also helpless, 106–107
  - racial discrimination, 108
  - struggling, 109–112
  - useful but useless, 107
- Informants, of research study, 40–42, 120
- Insider's voice, 10–11
- Instrumental exploitation, 93–94
- Integration, of immigrants, 2
  - cultural rules, 88–89
  - dominant discourse of, 82–91, 122, 123
  - English, 87–88
  - local qualifications, 87
  - lowering pride, 89–91
  - narratives, 83–85
  - networking, 85–86
  - volunteering, 86–87
- Interviews, 40–42
  - immigrant accounts, 56–58
- Intra-ethnic oppression, 92–97
  - accepting the unacceptable, 95–96
  - Chinese-owned
    - organizations, 92–93
  - co-workers (established immigrants), 94
  - harshness, 94–95
  - instrumental exploitation, 93–94
  - voluntary exploitation, 96–97
- Janssens, M., 126
- Job, as sacrifice, 130
- Job search template, 75–76, 79
- Knights, D., 30
- Kreiner, G. E., 23

- Lacan, Jacques, 29
 Language, 13–14
 Lemert, C., 28
 Life outside the mainstream, 92–93
 Lifestyle discourse, 60–62
 Linstead, S. A., 30 Local educational degree for integration, 84–85, 87
 Lowering pride, for integration, 89–91
- Macro-identity, 23
 Mann Gulch disaster, 21–22
 Mao Zedong, 58
 Martin, J., 23
 Mental distress, 112
     See also Cost of immigration Methodological approach, 27–38
     Critical Sensemaking, 32–38
     overview, 27–28
     poststructuralist perspective, 28–31
 Micro-identity, 23
 Mills, A. J., 24, 37, 72, 85, 90, 100, 126
 Morgan, G., 11
 Multi-ethnic service
     organizations, 73–79
     being understaffed, 74 funding, 74, 79–82 government agenda, 120 immigration policy and, 75
     low on resources, 74
 Murgatroyd, S. J., 24, 72, 85, 126
- Narratives of integration, 83–85
 Networking, for integration,
     85–86
 Ng, Roxana, 74
 Nkomo, S., 126
- Ong, P., 4, 91
 Organizational rules, 36–37
     funding requirements and,
     79–82
     See also Critical Sensemaking; rules
- Parenting, 62–63
 Phillips, N., 37, 40, 44, 48, 49
 Pio, E., 23
 Plausibility, 35 Political sense of Chinese administration, 58–60
 Postmodernism, 28
 Poststructuralism, 28–31
     deconstruction, 29
     Foucauldian version, 30
     Lemert on, 28
     resistance in, 9, 31, 100 techniques of, 29–30 Poststructuralist literature on identity work, 24–26
- Power
     acting on others, 30 Critical Sensemaking and, 126–127
     disciplinary, 30
     Foucauldian discourse, 5, 28–31 knowledge and, 29 micro-politics of, 31, 125 in modernity, 5
     See also Resistance
- Prasad, A., 6–7
 Pride, lowering, for integration, 89–91
- Rabinow, P., 31
 Race/ethnicity classification of groups, 20 identity shift, 22
 Racial background, as selection criterion, 55
 Racioethnic, 20

- Racism, 108, 130
 Canadian workplace and, 123
See also Workplace inequality young children and, 131
- Reflections, 130–131
- Reflexivity, 45–46
- Research study
 access, 40–42
 contribution of, 8–10
 data analysis, 46–50
 ethical considerations, 45–46
 informants, 40–42, 120
 overview, 3–8
 reflexivity, 45–46
 textual documents, 44
 translation and transcription, 42–43
See also Methodological approach
- Resistance
 Foucault on, 28–29, 31 importance of, 23
 micro-processes of, 99–117 poststructuralism and, 9, 31, 100 strength of, 96
See also Power
- Retrospective sense, 34
- Riot of 1967, in Hong Kong, 58–59
- Rose, N., 31
- Royal Commission report on workplace inequality, 36
- Rules, 71–73 cultural, 88–89
 dominant discourse, 82–91
 institutional, 73–79
 local qualifications, 87
 lowering pride, 89–91
 networking, 85–86
 organizational, 79–82
 speaking English, 87–88
 volunteering, 86–87
- Sample requirements, 40
- Selection criterion racial background as, 55
 shift in, 55
- Self deficient, 78–79, 90, 92, 97, 103–104, 112–113 in-between state of, 105–112
- Self-referential identity, 22
- Sennett, R., 123
- Sensemaking, 5, 32
 defined, 11–12
 paradoxical nature of, 32 with poststructuralist ideas, 32 projective, 22
 properties, 22
- Sheep, M. L., 23
- Sino-British Agreement, 59
- Social constructionism, 21–24
- Social context, sensemaking, 34
- Social division, 84
- Socio-psychological properties, 33–36
 enactment, 34
 identity construction, 33–34
 ongoing projects, 34
 plausibility rather than accuracy, 35 retrospection, 34 salient cues, 34–35
 social context, 34
- Stigma, 13, 30
- Struggling in-between self, 109–112
- Suicide attempt, 113
- Syrian refugees, US immigration policy and, 1
- Technologies of the Self* (Foucault), 32
- Textual documents, 44

- Thomas, W. I., 4
- Tiananmen Square Massacre, 59, 62
- Transcription, 42–43
- Translation, 42–43
- Treatment discrimination, 18, 19
- Tri-Council Policy Statement*, 45
- Trump, Donald, 1
- Unger, R. M., 36, 52
- United States
     executive orders, 1–2
     immigration policy, 1–2
- Visible minority immigrants, 3–4
     access discrimination, 19–21
     first-generation, 20–21
     sensemaking, 21
     structural approaches to, 19–21
- Voluntary exploitation, 96–97
- Volunteering, for integration, 86–87
- W5 episode, 56
- Weick, K., 5, 11, 18, 21
- Western supremacy, 62–64
- White employer, and integration, 83
- Wong, S. L., 58, 59
- Work identity, in Hong Kong, 64–69
- Workplace culture, in Hong Kong, 64–69
- Workplace discrimination
     access, 19–21
     treatment, 18, 19
- Workplace inequality, 119–127 critical implications, 122–125
     hierarchal division, 121–122
     institutional guidelines and, 120
     sensemaking, 119–122
- Zanoni, P., 126
- Znaniecki, F., 4