

INDEX

- Additional flying time, 391
- Aena, 5, 72, 76, 81–82
- Aena Aeropuertos, 76
- “Aerotropolis” policy, 252
- Agglomeration, 244, 252
 - endogenization, 252
 - equilibrium, 246
 - partial, 248
 - pressures, 242
 - self-reinforcing, 236
 - shadow, 237
- Aggregate airport effects
 - baseline OLS estimates of, 278
 - DD estimation of standard errors and, 278–279
- Agreements, 100, 108–109
 - bilateral, 370
 - cooperative, 150
 - master use-and-lease, 102
 - Open Skies, 389
- Air accessibility, 265
- Air Commerce Act (1926), 269–270, 272
- Air Mail Network (1938), 271, 277
- Air Mail system, 270
- Air Passenger Duty, 214
- Air Passenger Tax, 214–215
- Air service incentive programs (ASIPs), 108–109
- Air throughput unit (ATU), 159
- Air traffic movements (ATM), 7, 153, 154, 159, 162, 168, 214, 217
- Air transport parlance, 242, 243
- Air Transport Research Society (ATRS), 105
 - airport benchmarking report, 105
- Air Travel Tax, 214
- Airline Deregulation Act (ADA), 151*n*2
- Airlines (AL), 20–21, 99, 130, 143
 - airline–airport relationship, 125
 - airports issue revenue bonds backed by, 104–105
 - behavior, 247
 - consequences for airline companies, 168
 - context, 240–241
 - control and/or invest in airport facilities, 102–103
 - impact of delays on airline frequencies, 338
 - economics, 50
 - models for, 216–220
 - network structure, 338
 - data, 343–349
 - empirical model, 349–351
 - estimation and results, 351–356
 - literature review, 337–339
 - model and equilibrium analysis, 339–343
 - network airlines, 335–336
 - policy implications, 356–357
 - organization, 367–368
 - ownership and joint decision of airport and, 107
 - residual RATE-setting method and signatory airline status, 101–102
 - revenue and risk sharing between airports and, 105

- sector, 99
- Airport charges (AC), 158–159, 165, 166, 214
 - Air Passenger Tax, 214–215
 - model results, 227–229
 - models for airlines and airports
 - behavior, 216
 - airlines response to, 216–218
 - airport charging under different objectives, 218–220
 - numerical example, 230–231
 - pass–on rates under different market characteristics, 220–227
- Airport Corporate Centre, 329
- Airport Direct Travel (ADT), 53–54
- Airport Employment Zone (AEZ), 323, 327
- Airport Improvement Program (AIP), 104
- Airport of Naples (NAP), 375
- Airport–airline
 - Airports Council International, 99–100
 - alternative forms, 101
 - airlines control and/or invest in airport facilities, 102–103
 - airport–airline consortium, 105–106
 - airports issue revenue bonds backed by airlines, 104–105
 - incentive programs and agreements, 108–109
 - information sharing and joint marketing, 107–108
 - long-term usage contract, 103–104
 - ownership and joint decision of airport and airline, 107
 - residual RATE-setting method and signatory airline status, 101–102
 - revenue and risk sharing
 - between airports and airlines, 105
 - analytical approaches, 109
 - bargaining game, 112
 - case studies, 113
 - collusion or joint venture, 112–113
 - contract design and moral hazard, 113
 - driving times between English/Welsh airports, 110
 - interpretation of findings and implications, 114–116
 - revenue sharing, 111
 - study approaches, 113–114
 - arrangements, 6, 98
 - consortium, 105–106
 - cooperations, 99
 - relationship, 123
 - airport and airline risk sharing contract, 127–135
 - airport and airline vertical relationship, 124–127
 - balance of airport and airline risk sharing, 135–141
 - incomplete contract framework analysis, 141–149
 - revenue sharing, 111
- Airports (AP), 1, 98–99, 127, 130, 143, 214, 236, 262
 - behavior, 216–220
 - business, 125
 - changing nature of airport operations and government role, 3–7
 - commercialization, 5
 - complex and risky business, 124–125
 - concessions
 - two-side complementarity, 51
 - two-sidedness in, 51–55, 60–62
 - welfare neutrality, 51

- welfare neutrality in airport concessions, 55–59, 60–62
- congestion, 338
 - data, 343–349
 - empirical model, 349–351
 - estimation and results, 351–356
 - literature review, 337–339
 - model and equilibrium analysis, 339–343
 - network airlines, 335–336
 - policy implications, 356–357
- connectivity quality, 411
 - average connecting times, 413
 - average travel distances and times of connecting passengers, 414
 - distribution of connecting times, 415
 - DTI, 417
 - hourly distribution of connecting passengers, 416
 - KPIs, 412
 - Middle East hubs, 411
- cost structure, 8, 183
 - input measurement in airport industry, 185, 188–189, 210–212
 - output measurement in airport industry, 185–188, 210–212
 - policy implications, 203–204
 - scale and scope economies in airport industry, 196–203
 - technology of multiproduct firms, 189–196
- deregulation, 70
- economics literature, 51
- effects on local and regional economies, 9–10
- efficiency, structure and pricing of airport services, 7–9
- efficiency plan, 76
- finance, 74–75
- identification with “significant impact”, 289
 - characteristics of “successful” airports, 295
 - comparison of samples:
 - dependent variable, 290
 - geographic distribution of significant airports, 293
 - on local economies, 291
 - regressions, 294–297
 - synthetic control estimator, 289–292
 - tourism, 292–294
- income from, 154
- infrastructure, 154
- investments, 116
- issue revenue bonds backed by airlines, 104–105
- LCCs and, 364
 - airline organization, 367–368
 - in catchment area, 366–367
 - deregulated environment, 365
 - power relations, 368–369
- “light-handed” regulation, 2
- local labor markets and, 267–269
- location, 269
- operations and connectivity, 10–12
- ownership and joint decision of airport and airline, 107
- pricing, 59
- privatization, 70
- quality, 52
- revenue and risk sharing between airports and airlines, 105
- risk sharing across industries, 125–127
- services
 - charges determination, 101–102
 - regulation of, 19–21
- spatial evolution, 235
 - aviation, 236–237

- conceptual framework of NGE, 238–244
- critique of NGE approach, 253–255
- implications for airport economics and policy, 249–253
- model outcomes, 244–249
- NGE, 237–238
- traditional approaches to economic regulation of, 21
- governance arrangements involving checks and balances, 23–24
- price cap regulation, 22–23
- rate of return regulation and cost-based regulation, 22
- variations to direct regulatory approaches, 23
- Airports Authorities Act (AAA), 25, 28
- Airports Council International, 99–100
- All Nippon Airways (ANA), 6, 129
 - airline, 140
 - All Nippon Airways-Noto arrangement, 6
 - group, 130, 134
- Allocative inefficiencies, 79–80
 - additional robustness estimation, 95
 - airport privatization, 70
 - econometric specification and data, 80–83
 - through error component approach, 91
 - estimation, 69, 77
 - methodology
 - distance function, 76–78
 - error component approach, 79–80
 - parametric approach, 78–79
 - through parametric approach, 86–90
- results
 - allocative inefficiency through error component approach, 91
 - allocative inefficiency through parametric approach, 86–90
 - input-oriented distance function, 83–86
 - Spanish airport system, 72–76
 - stochastic frontier approach, 71
- Amenity scale, 292, 308–310
 - exception, 294
 - USDA ERS, 292
- American Air Mail Catalogue*, 270
- “Archetypical” LCC business model, 393
- Army Air Service (AAS), 270, 272, 273, 275
- Auckland Airport, 28, 37, 38
- Austin-Bergstrom Airport (AUS Airport), 294
- Australia
 - comparison of light-handed approaches to regulation of airport services in, 31
 - information disclosure and price and quality of service monitoring regulation, 31–32
 - key characteristics/features, 33
 - negotiate-arbitrate regulation, 32
 - reviews, 32–35
 - light-handed regulation of airports in, 26–27
- Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC), 26, 100
- Auto Regressive Integrated Moving Average Model (ARIMA Model), 137–138
- Aviation, 54, 247, 262, 265
 - activities, 50

- aviation-dependent property, 10
- businesses, 55–56
- competition, 12
- Avinor, 7, 164
 - charging policy, 158
 - consequences for Airport owner, 164, 167, 178–179
 - Norwegian airports owned by, 157
- “Backyard capitalism”, 238, 250
- Banking and finance sector, 317
- Bargaining game, 112
- Bartik instrument, 266
- Baseline OLS estimates of aggregate airport effects, 278
- Benchmarking worldwide airport connectivity with demand data, 387
 - data and methodology, 395
 - connectivity indicators, 398–402
 - datasets and methodology, 402–404
 - simplified regional air transport network, 396
- “hub” airports, 388
- literature review, 390
 - connectivity measures, 390–392
 - deregulation, airport competition and rise of new players, 392–393
 - self-connectivity, 393–395
- Middle East carriers, 389
- results and discussion
 - airport connectivity quality, 411–417
 - evolution of global hub connectivity, 404–411
 - hidden potential of self-connectivity, 417–419
- Bertrand competition, 226
- Best weekly connection itineraries, 395
 - times, 401
- Better Choice for Parking (BCP), 62
- Bottasso, Anna, 7, 8, 181
- British Midland International (BMI), 215
- Build-own-transfer contract (BOT contract), 102–103
- Cairo International Airport, 56
- Capital stock measurement, 188
- Capital variable, 82, 197
- Car rental-type services, 57, 60, 61
- Catchment area, 11, 365, 382
 - airports in, 366–367
 - analysis, 253
 - of Berlin, 193
 - international, 322
 - overlapping, 109
- Census Based Statistical Area (CBSA), 269, 274–276, 287
- Centralized management model, 71, 72, 76
- Ceteris paribus, 243, 317
- Charleroi airport, 108, 117
- Circuitry time. See Additional flying time
- Circular cumulative causation, 239
- Civic amenity, 56
- Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB), 249
- Clear Communications, 27
- Cobb-Douglas function, 85, 246
- Collusion, 112–113, 116
- Colorado Springs Airport (COS Airport), 294, 297
- Commerce Act (1986), 25, 28, 32, 36
- Commerce Amendment Act (2008), 28
- Commercial aviation, 270, 272, 274
- Commercial property, 323
 - economic effect of airport operations, 315–318

- international airport effect on
 - commercial property values, 313
- Toronto Pearson International Airport, 322–330
- Vancouver International Airport, 318–322
- Commercial services, 54, 63, 105, 107, 111, 114, 184
- Commission for Aviation Regulation in Ireland, 30
- Complementarity
 - between aviation and commercial services, 54
 - one-side, 52
 - two-side, 51
- Composite cost function, general specification of, 193–194
- Compound Annual Growth Rate (CAGR), 375, 377
- Concession(s), 50–51, 52
 - services, 57
 - substitutability between concession goods at airport and goods, 55–57
 - traveler and non-traveler surplus in concessions consumption, 57–59
- Congestion, 336
 - internalization of, 337
 - negative effects of, 338
- Connecting time, 391, 399
- Connecting Time Increase indicator (CTI indicator), 399–401, 413
- Connectivity
 - indicators, 398
 - average market length of transfer passengers, 401
 - passenger itineraries, 400
 - quality, 398–401
 - quantity, 398
 - SC potential indicator, 401–402
 - measures, 390–392
 - See also* Global hub connectivity
- Constant-elasticity of substitution (CES), 246
- Contract design, 113
- Contract theory
 - framework, 125
 - incomplete, 141–142
- Copenhagen airport, 18, 20
- Core-periphery
 - dualism, 238
 - model, 243
 - vertical linkage model, 245
- Cost complementarity test, 197, 202
- Cost functions for UK airport industry, 198
- Cost of raising public funds, 155, 166, 167, 229
- Cost structure of airport industry
 - input measurement in airport industry, 185, 188–189, 210–212
 - output measurement in airport industry, 185–188, 210–212
 - policy implications, 203–204
 - scale and scope economies in airport industry, 196–203
 - technology of multiproduct firms, 189–196
- Cost-based regulation, 22
- Cross-country studies, 199–201
- Cross-sectional analysis, 326
 - hotels, 326–327
 - offices, 328–330
 - warehouses, 327–328
- Customer facility charges (CFCs), 104
- Dalian airport, 108
- Data, 81–83, 343–349
- Data envelopment analysis (DEA), 8, 28, 71, 183

- Datasets, 303, 390, 402–404
- Degree of airport/airline dependency, 369–371
- Delays, 336
 - impact of delays on airline frequencies, 338
 - evolution of airport, 348
 - and size of airports in sample, 346
- Demand
 - demand-based approach, 391
 - endogenous location of, 243–244
 - functions, 221
- DEN Consortium, 106
- Destinations served (DEST), 292, 398
- Detour Time Increase (DTI), 399, 400, 417
- Detroit Airlines North Terminal Consortium (DANTEC), 106
- Difference-in-differences (DD), 266
 - estimation of aggregate airport effects and standard errors, 278–279
 - estimator, 278
 - regression, 287
- Direct passengers, 338, 396, 397
- Direct regulatory approaches, 18, 21–22, 23, 42
- Dispute resolution approach, 38–39, 41
 - to regulation, 42
- Distance function, 76–78, 80
 - duality, 77
 - input-oriented, 71
 - output input, 199
- Dixit-Stiglitz, 240, 246
- Donor pool, 282, 294
- Driving distance, 324, 326–327
- Dubai, 12, 107, 112, 247, 401, 406, 407, 411, 413, 419
- Dummy variables, 85, 161, 269, 305, 320, 350, 351
- Duopoly, 8, 111, 215, 225–227, 337
- Düsseldorf airport, 18
- Dynamic oligopolistic market structure, 241
- Earnings sharing regulation, 23
- E-commerce, 53–54
- Econometric specification, 80
- Economic
 - geography, 239, 253, 254
 - principles of economic welfare, 179–180
 - theory, 78
- Economies of capacity utilization, 195–197
- Elmira-Corning Regional Airport (ELM Airport), 283–287
- Empirical model, 349–351
- Endogenous
 - firm locations, 242–243
 - location of demand, 243–244
- Enhanced information disclosure regulation, 42
- Equilibrium
 - analysis, 339
 - comparison of frequencies and profits, 341–343
 - FC network, 339–341
 - HS network, 341
 - frequency, 341
 - model, 245–246
- Error component approach, 79–80
 - allocative inefficiency through, 91
- Estimation strategies, 278
 - baseline OLS estimates of aggregate airport effects, 278
 - DD estimation of aggregate airport effects and standard errors, 278
 - synthetic control analysis, 279–283
- EU Airport Charges Directive, 18, 108
- Euromonitor International, 56

- Europe, LCCs in, 363–364
- European Commission, 108–109
- European Economic Area (EEA), 402
- European hubs, 393, 407
- European section of Airports Council, 317
- Expected schedule delay, 340
- Exponential demand function, 221, 224–225, 229
- Federal actors, 270
- Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), 100, 104, 105, 108–109, 274, 346
- Feedback effect, 253
- “First nature causes” of regional economic activity, 9
- Fiscal fee, 215
- Flight connectivity, 391
- Food and beverage-type services, 57, 60, 61
- “Foreclosure”, 114, 124
- Foreign Direct Investment (FDI), 316
- Forward Sortation Area (FSA), 325, 327
- Freight (FRT), 159
- Full service airlines (FSAs), 99, 103, 388
- Fully connected networks (FC networks), 336, 337, 339–341
- Gatwick Airport, 18
- Gauging balance, 138–141
- Gauging risk sharing balance framework, 135–137
- General Airport Revenue Bonds (GARBs), 104
- General obligation bonds (GO Bonds), 104
- Geographical
 - economics theory, 243
 - market, 391
- Geography, Climate, and Complementary Transportation Networks, 269
- Global Distributions Systems (GDSs), 403
- Global hub connectivity
 - basic KPIs, 405
 - connecting shares for selection of hubs, 407, 408
 - evolution of, 404
 - selection of African and Middle East hubs, 410
 - selection of European hubs, 409
 - selection of hubs in terms of percentage of connecting passengers, 408
 - Worldwide Hubs, 406
 - See also* Connectivity
- Global Scale economies, 190–191, 192, 196
- “Gold-plating” of assets, 22
- Governance arrangements involving checks and balances, 23–24
- Government Accountability Office (GAO), 2
- Government in Ireland, 18
- Grant assurances, 23
- Great Depression, 249
- Gross Land Area (GLA), 320
- Gulf-based carriers, 388, 392
- Heathrow’s traffic data, 398
- Heavy-handed regulations, 24–25
- Herfindahl–Hirschman concentration index (HHI concentration index), 346, 350
- Heterogeneous impact of airports
 - case studies, 283–287
 - conventional wisdom, 262–263
 - data, 269–272

- estimating effect of airports on cities, 272
 - estimation strategies, 278–283
 - research design, 269–277
- literature review, 264–267
- local labor markets and airports, 267–269
- negative causal effects, 264
- research design, 263
- results, 287
 - airports identification with “significant impact”, 289–297
 - consistency of synthetic control estimator, 287–289
- Hidden potential, 401, 402
 - of self-connectivity, 417–419
- Hold-up problem, 142, 143
- Hub
 - airports, 388
 - connectivity, 391
 - premium, 99
- Hub-and-spoke (HS), 336, 337
 - carriers, 367
 - network, 341
- Hybridization, 393
- “Iceberg” function, 241
- Identification approach, 266
- Imperfect competition, 240–241
- Incentive programs, 108–109
- Incentive regulation, 17, 22
- Incomplete contract
 - framework analysis
 - incomplete contract theory and application to risk sharing contracts, 141–142
 - model, 142–145
 - numerical illustrations, 145–149
 - theory, 141–142
- Indirect passengers, 396, 397
- Information disclosure regulation, 31–32, 42
 - regulatory compliance costs of alternative approaches, 39
 - threat of stronger regulatory measure, or regulatory intervention, light-handed regulation, 36
 - transparency of airport performance under light-handed regulation, 37–38
- Information sharing, 107–108
- Input distance function, 77
- Input measurement in airport industry, 185, 188–189, 210–212
- Input methodologies, 28, 37
- Input-oriented distance function, 77–78, 83
 - estimates of distance frontier system, 84
 - ‘models’ test, 85
 - parametric approach, 86
- Instrumental variables approach, 266
- Inter-LCC connectivity, 395
- Internalization
 - of congestion, 337
 - hypothesis states, 337
- International air transport, 10
 - hub cities, 236
 - organizations, 154
- International Air Transport Association (IATA), 99–100, 108, 154, 214
- International airport effect on commercial property values
 - economic effect of airport operations, 315–318
- Toronto Pearson International Airport, 322–330
- Vancouver International Airport, 318–322

- International Civil Aviation
 - Organisation (ICAO), 103, 154, 214
- Interpretation of findings and implications, 114–116
- Intra-LCC connectivity, 395
- IPUMS database, 269
- Istanbul, 406

- Joint marketing, 107–108
- Joint venture, 112–113, 131, 135, 142

- Karlsruhe (FKB), 381

- Labor demand, 267
- Lack of motivation, 76–77
- Lagrangian function, 219
- “Leave-one-out” method, 283
- Light-handed regulation, 2, 3, 7, 15, 16, 29, 100
 - airport services in Australia and New Zealand, 31
 - information disclosure and price and quality of service monitoring regulation, 31–32
 - key characteristics/features, 33
 - negotiate-arbitrate regulation, 32
 - reviews, 32–35
 - benefits of greater negotiation of airport services, 30–31
 - design, 35–41
 - difficulties experienced with price cap regulation of airport services, 29
 - increased complexity and regulatory intervention over time, 29–30
 - risk and uncertainty, 30
 - direct regulatory approaches, 18
 - evolution, 24
 - Australia, 26–27
 - New Zealand, 24–25, 27–29
 - North America, 25–26
 - “light-handed” regulatory alternative, 16
 - price cap regulation, 17
 - regulation of airport services, 19–21
 - regulatory compliance costs of alternative approaches, 39
 - information disclosure regulation and price and quality, 39
 - negotiate-arbitrate regulation, 39
 - threat of stronger regulatory measure, or regulatory intervention, under, 35
 - information disclosure regulation and price and quality, 36
 - negotiate-arbitrate regulation, 36–37
 - traditional approaches to economic regulation of airports, 21–24
 - transparency of airport performance under light-handed regulation, 37
 - information disclosure regulation and price and quality, 37–38
 - negotiate-arbitrate regulation, 38–39
- Linear demand function, 221–223
 - duopoly, 225–227
- Load factor (LF), 130, 137–138, 147–148
- Load Factor Guarantee Mechanism (LFGM), 105, 127, 144
- Noto Airport, 130–135
 - estimated airport’s payoff probability distributions, 140

- Local economies, airport effects on, 9–10
- Local labor markets and airports, 267–269
- Location theory, 253–254
- London Airports, 20
- London Gatwick, 389, 417
- London Heathrow, 19, 107, 215, 393, 396, 404, 407, 411, 413, 416
- London-Gatwick airports, 394
- Long-run global economies of scale, 196
- Long-run marginal cost pricing, 165
 - for airline companies and passengers, 168
 - for airport owner, 167
 - consequences of, 166
 - price equal to, 162–165
 - for State, 167
 - welfare considerations, 168–169
- Long-term usage contract, 6, 103–104, 106
- Lot size, 324, 327
- “Love-for-variety” effect, 241
- Low cost carriers (LCCs), 11, 99, 126, 237, 336, 362, 389
 - and airports, 364
 - airline organization, 367–368
 - in catchment area, 366–367
 - deregulated environment, 365
 - power relations, 368–369
 - analysis
 - case studies, 375–381
 - methodology, 371–373
 - sample and case selection, 373–375
 - degree of airport/airline dependency, 369–371
 - in Europe, 363–364
 - features of low-cost model, 363
 - passengers in millions, 364
 - RCI-YCP diagram for airport sample, 374
 - service growth, 113
- Lyon Airport (LYS), 378
- “Majority in interests” principal, 102
- Marginal costs (MCs), 162, 163, 165
 - estimation in Scandinavia, 160
 - marginal cost-based airport charges, 162
 - aviation charges based on pricing, 174
 - charge schemes based on pricing, 163
 - consequences of long-run marginal cost pricing, 166–169
 - consequences of MC pricing, 178–179
 - cost of raising public funds, 166
 - to meet revenue restrictions, 165
 - price equal to long-run MC, 162–165
 - pricing, 154
- Market Economy Operator test (MEO test), 370–371
- Market liberalization, 247
- Marxist political economy, 253
- Maximum take-off weight (MTOW), 158, 214
- Mean square prediction error (MSPE), 280
- Metropolitan statistical area (MSA), 264, 344
- Micro-economics, 125
- Middle East
 - carriers, 389, 393
 - hubs, 411
- Milan-Malpensa airports, 394
- Milano Malpensa airports, 389
- “Minimalist” approach, 32
- Mixing data on passenger demand (MIDT), 391, 395, 403
- Monopolistically competitive market structure, 240

- Moral hazard, 113
- Multi Airport Systems (MAS), 200
- Multiproduct firms, technology of, 189–196
- Multiproduct Scale economies, 190
- Nash Bargaining solutions, 143, 146, 148
- National Access regime, 26
- National Aviation Policy statement, 18
- National Energy Board (NEB), 26
- National highway plan, 264–265
- National Historical Geographic Information System (NHGIS), 269
- National Plan of Integrated Airport Systems, 23
- National specialization, 236
- Natural monopoly, 189–190
- Negotiate-arbitrate regulation, 26–27, 32, 36–37, 42
 light-handed regulation, 36–37
 regulatory compliance costs of alternative approaches, 39 threat of stronger regulatory measure, or regulatory intervention, 36–37 transparency of airport performance, 38–39
- Negotiated settlements, 25
- Negotiation, benefits of, 30–31
- Neoclassical theory, 76–77, 253–254
- Netscan method, 390–391
- Network
 airlines, 335–336
 behavior, 339
 choice, 337
- New economic geography (NEG), 236, 239, 253–254
- New geographical economics (NGE), 9, 237–238, 253
 aviation, 236–237
 conceptual framework of, 238
 backyard capitalism, 238–239
 endogenous firm locations, 242–243 endogenous location of demand, 243–244
 imperfect competition, 240–241
 increasing returns, 240 study of geographical concentration, 239 transportation/trade costs, 241–242 critique of, 253–255
 implications for airport economics and policy, 249
 implications for approach and analysis of airport location problem, 251–253
 NGE as approach to transport project appraisal, 249–250
 model outcomes, 244–249
- New Zealand, 27
 changes to light-handed regulation in, 27–29
 comparison of light-handed approaches to regulation of airport services in, 31
 information disclosure and price and quality of service monitoring regulation, 31–32
 key characteristics/features, 33
 negotiate-arbitrate regulation, 32
 reviews, 32–35
 light-handed regulation in, 24–25
- New Zealand Commerce Commission (NZCC), 27, 28, 35
- Niagara Falls International Airport Stakeholders Group, 109
- Niche market, 393–395
- No-payment zone, 135, 141
- Non-aeronautical charges, 105

- Non-aviation
 - activities, 50, 61
 - businesses, 55–56
 - related property, 10
 - revenues, 50
 - services, 52–53
- Non-legacy carriers, 351, 354, 355
- Non-traveler surplus in concessions
 - consumption, 57–59
- Nontradable goods, 268
- North America, Light-Handed
 - Regulation in Utility Sector in, 25–26
- North American Industry
 - Classification System (NAICS), 319, 322
- Norwegian Airports
 - costs at, 159–162
 - Ramsey pricing approach at, 170–173
 - structure, 156–158
- Norwegian kroner (NOK), 158, 159, 160, 163, 164, 165
- Norwegian Ministry of Transport and Communications, 155, 156, 162, 164
- Noto airport, 142
 - information on, 129
 - LFGM, 130
 - ANA group, 130–131
 - estimated LF, 133
 - no-payment zone, 135
 - Noto airport long-term results, 136
 - payment schedules of Noto Airport LFGM, 132
 - renegotiation process, 134
- Noto LFGM contract, 141
- Null hypothesis, 85, 91
- Numerical model, 135, 138, 147
- OAG Schedules dataset, 402
- One-side complementarity, 52
- Open skies agreement (OSA), 151n2
- Ordinary least squares regression (OLS regression), 287
- Output measurement in airport industry, 185–188, 210–212
- Parametric approach, 78–79, 80
 - allocative inefficiency through, 86
 - evolution of allocative efficiency for pair of inputs, 87
 - inefficiency indices by pair of inputs, 86
 - Spanish airport system, 90
 - specific-group evolution
 - efficiency
 - labor–intermediate consumption, 89
 - specific-group evolution of allocative efficiency
 - labor–capital, 88
- Pareto-superior equilibrium, 339
- Pass-on rates, 170
 - exponential demand function, 224–225
 - linear demand, 221–223
 - duopoly, 225–227
 - under market characteristics, 220, 228
 - power demand function, 223–224
- “Pass-on” airport costs, 8
- Passenger facility charges (PFC), 104
- Passengers (PAX), 52, 60, 154, 157, 159, 160, 214, 215, 216, 217, 219
 - airports marginal cost, 220
 - charge, 168
 - connectivity, 391
 - consequences for, 168
 - fiscal, 230
 - overcapacity, 404
 - price sensitivity, 223
 - travel demand, 222

- Path dependence concept, 247, 255
- PaxIS, databases, 391
- Payoff distribution, 139
- Perfect competition, 240–241
- Permutation test, 282
- Piece-wise linear function, 145
- Point-to-point
 - airlines, 339
 - point-to-point-scheme, 367
- Population data, 269
- Post-World War II period, 263, 274
- Power demand function, 9, 221, 223–224
- Power relations, 368–369
- Pre-privatization process, 71
 - See also* Allocative efficiency estimation
- Price cap regulation, 22–23
 - difficulties experienced with, 29
 - increased complexity and regulatory intervention over time, 29–30
 - risk and uncertainty, 30
 - in United Kingdom, 17
- Price caps, 26
- Price equal to long-run MC, 162–165
- Price monitoring, 26
 - See also* Service monitoring, price and quality of
- Pricing of airport operations
 - airport charges, 158–159
 - consequences for MC pricing, 178–179
 - costs at Norwegian airports, 159–162
 - marginal cost-based airport charges, 162–169
 - Norwegian airport structure, 156–158
 - principles of economic welfare, 179–180
 - Ramsey pricing approach under budget constraints, 169–173
- Primary airports, 365, 366
- Principal–agent theory, 127
- Private monopolistic airports, 53
- Privatization
 - airport, 70
 - airport privatization schedule 2009–2015, 76
 - schedule, 75–76
 - by Spanish government, 5
 - of Sydney Airport, 34
- Product-specific scale economies, 191
- Productivity Commission, 39
- Profit maximizing airports, 218–219, 220
- Public monopolistic airports, 53
- Public private partnership (PPP), 102–103, 126
- Public Service Obligation (PSO), 156, 216, 375
- Quality connectivity indicators, 398–401
- Quantity connectivity indicators, 398
- Ramsey pricing approach, 7, 154–155, 214
 - under budget constraints, 169
 - at Norwegian Airports, 170–173
- Ramsey rule, 154, 170
- Rate of return regulation, 22
- Reggio Calabria (REG), 376, 379
- Regional economies, effects on, 9–10
 - See also* Scale and scope economies in airport industry
- “Regional side-effects”, 249
- Regional specialization, 236
- Regional-scale macroeconomic phenomena, 289
- Regression analysis, 320, 321
- Regulatory targets, 17

- Relative Closeness Index (RCI), 371, 372, 375
 evolution of CAGR, 377
 RCI-YCP diagram for airport sample, 374
- Renegotiation process, 134
- Reno, Nevada (RNO), 294
- Residual RATE-setting method, 101–102
- Revenue
 airports issue revenue bonds backed by airlines, 104–105 restrictions, 165
 revenue and risk sharing between airports and airlines, 105
 Revenue-Adjusted MC, 165
 sharing, 111
- Risk sharing airport and airline, 127–128
 information on Noto airport, 129
 Noto airport LGFM, 130–135 balance of airport and airline framework of gauging risk sharing balance, 135–137
 gauging balance, 138–141
 model formulation for risk sharing balance, 137–138 contracts application, 141–142 across industries, 125–127
 relationship, 6
- Ryanair, 369, 376–377, 378, 380, 381, 382
- San Antonio Airlines Consortium (SAAC), 106
- Scale and scope economies in airport industry, 191, 192, 196 critical assessment, 201–203
 cross-country studies, 199–201
 single country studies, 198–199
 United States, 197–198
- Scandinavian Airlines (SAS), 168
- Scientific/technical and R&D sector, 317
- “Second nature”, 9
- “Secondary” airport, 365, 366
- Self-connectivity (SC), 12, 393–395 hidden potential of, 417–419 potential indicator, 401–402
- Self-help hubbing, 394
- Self-reinforcing agglomeration, 236, 237
- Service monitoring, price and quality of in Australia, 38
 information disclosure regulation and, 36, 37, 39 regulation, 31–32
- Severe acute respiratory syndrome (SARS), 30
- “Signatory airline”, 5–6, 101–102
- Simple principal–agent model, 216
- Singapore Airlines (SIA), 107
- Single country studies, 184–185, 197, 198–199
- Sliding scale regulation, 23
- Slot-distribution regimes, 338–339
- Social welfare, 4, 7, 58, 166, 219
- Spanish airport system, 71, 87, 90
 privatization schedule, 75–76 taxonomy of Spanish airports, 72–75 passenger volumes and dynamics of Spanish airports, 74
 Spanish airport classification, 73
- Spanish Ministry of Transports, 88
- Spanish Statistical Office (INE), 81–82
- Spatial econometrics techniques, 265
- Spatial evolution of airports
 aviation, 236–237
 conceptual framework of NGE, 238–244

- critique of NGE approach, 253–255
- implications for airport economics and policy, 249–253
- model outcomes, 244–249
- NGE, 237–238
- Spatial impossibility theorem, 238
- Special Facility Revenue Bonds (SFRBs), 104
- Springfield-Branson National Airport (SGF), 283, 291, 307
- Stochastic frontier approach, 71
- “Strategic simplification”, 241
- Suburbanization, 264
- Super connectors. See Gulf-based carriers
- “Supply-based” approaches, 391
- Sydney Airport, 34
- Synthetic control analysis, 279–283
- Synthetic control estimator, consistency of, 287–289
- “Take-it or-leave-it” contract, 112
- Target load factor (Target LF), 132, 141
- Technical efficiency, 77, 78, 183
- Telecom, 27
- Telecommunications Act (2001), 28
- Terminal Navigation Charge (TNC), 158, 159
- Texas, 292
- Time series
 - analysis, 135–138, 323–326
 - variation, 265
- Tomahawk Diagram, 248
- Toronto Pearson International Airport (YYZ), 315, 318, 322
 - AEZ, 323
- Toronto Pearson’s impact on commercial property values, 323–326
 - cross-sectional analysis, 326
 - hotels, 326–327
 - offices, 328–330
 - warehouses, 327–328
 - time series analysis, 323–326
- Tourism services, 244
- Tradable goods, 27
- Trade costs, 241–242
- Traditional wave-system analysis, 411
- Traffic generator, 396
- Traffic leakage, 367
- Transcontinental and Western Air (TWA), 270
- Transport project appraisal, NGE as approach to, 249–250
- Transportation costs, 241–242
- “Travel Bank–Air Service Initiative”, 109
- Travel time increase (TTI), 398
- Traveler surplus in concessions consumption, 57–59
- Twice-differentiable cost function, 192
- Two-side complementarity, 51, 52
- Two-sidedness in airport concessions, 51–55, 60–62
- UK Civil Aviation Authority, 111, 215
- UK Competition Commission, 111, 116
- United States, cost structure of airports, 197–198
- Universal Time Coordinated (UTC), 402
- US Department of Transportation, 23–24, 344
- US General Accounting Office, 104
- Utility maximizing airports, 219–220
- Valladolid airport, 381
- Vancouver International Airport (YVR), 315, 318–322

- See also* Toronto Pearson International Airport (YYZ)
- Variable thresholds, 391
- Vendor buy-back contracts, 126
- Vertical linkage model, 239, 244–249
- “Vertical relationship”, 100, 101 airport and airline, 124–127
- Vertical structures, 101, 113–114

- Warehouses, 327–328
- Welfare considerations, 168–169
- Welfare maximizing airports, 219
- Welfare neutrality, 51
 - in airport concessions, 55, 60–62
 - substitutability between concession goods, 55–57
 - traveler and non-traveler surplus in concessions consumption, 57–59
- Westcoast Framework, 26
- Work load units (WLUs), 81, 159, 185, 217

- Yearly carried passengers (YCP), 372
 - evolution of CAGR, 377
 - RCI-YCP diagram for airport sample, 374
- Youngstown-Warren Regional Airport (YNG), 109