

INDEX

Note: Page numbers followed by “n” indicate notes.

- Academic writing with child researchers
 - challenges of collaborative writing with child researchers, 220–222
 - collaborative academic writing
 - with young researchers in childhood studies, 215–220
 - collectivistic, process-oriented model of academic writing with children, 222–224
 - intergenerational research, 224–225
- Access, recruitment and, 76–77, 126
- Acting, 218
- Additional snowball technique, 50
- Adeptness, 44
- Adivasi Gond community, 90
- Adivasi identities, 90
- Adivasi youth ‘voices’ in village community
 - construction of childhood, youth and young voices, 92–94
 - ethics of Navi gating research context, 94–97
 - ethics review, 91–92
 - study aims and context, 90–91
 - teasing out ethical tensions, 97–100
- Adult gatekeepers, 14
- Adult-centric frameworks, 30
- Adult-imposed research agenda, 201
- Adult/Child power relations and positionality, 5–6
- Adolescents, 46
- Adulthood, 58, 188
 - age-determined constructions of childhood/adulthood status, 58–59
- Adultist/scientific approach, 125
- Age
 - age-appropriate information, 16
 - age-determined constructions of childhood/adulthood status, 58–59
 - and migration status, 192–193
- Agentic potential, 217
- Anonymity, 2, 34, 63–64, 229
- Antisocial behaviour, 106
 - in Scotland, 110–112
- Anxiety, 66
- Appreciation payments, 49
- Appropriate child-centred methods, 124
- Appropriate methodologies, 1
- Arts, 1
 - arts-based methods, 2, 17
 - arts-based research approach, 200, 223
 - project, 112
- Assent, 2, 30, 47, 126–128, 229
- Audience, 160
- Augmentative communication
 - software, 81
- Augmented forms of communication, 76
- Authenticity ethics in ethnodrama and ethnotheatre, 204–205
- Balanced approach
 - communicating research ethics, 115–116
 - research vision and reality, 116–117
 - working towards, 115
 - writing ethics and doing ethics, 115
- Benefits, 18
- Best outcomes, 156
- British Educational Research Association, 30
- British Sociological Association, 30

- Careful attention, 48
- Case-study design, 92
- Census, 81
- Child migrants
- ethics of research with child migrants in Ghana, 186–192
 - in Ghana, 186–187
 - research ethics and integrity in research with, 192–194
- Child rights-based/protectionist approach, 125
- Child street traders, research with
- research with child street traders in Nigeria, 125–131
 - trust, power and rights in childhood research, 123–124
- Child-centred frameworks, 30
- Child-centred research (see also Drama-based research method; Youth-centred research)
- conceptualisations of childhood and children's rights, 169–170
 - dissemination, 177–178
 - ethical considerations in research with children, 170–172
 - ethics of representing children's data in analyses, 176–177
 - flexibility and responsiveness key for ethical research, 176
 - modifying methods for ethical, meaningful engagement and robust data, 172–176
 - participation vs. protection in dissemination, 178–179
- Child-centred techniques, 14
- Child-led methodologies, 107
- Child-led research, 220
- participation, 216
- Child–adult academic writing, 221
- Childhood, 58
- age-determined constructions of childhood/adulthood status, 58–59
 - collaborative academic writing with young researchers in, 215–220
 - conceptualisations of, 169–170
 - construction of, 92–94
 - negotiating trust in, 139–145
 - studies, 153
 - and youth-focussed research, 1–2
- 'Childhoodnature Companion', 223
- Children
- actively giving and withdrawing consent, 32–34
 - in arts-based research activities, 201
 - children's reflections on participation in research, 37–39
 - co-expertise, 161–162
 - co-producing and co-analysing field notes, 34–37
 - as co-researchers, 152, 155–156
 - co-working sessions, 157–159
 - and disability, 81–82
 - ethics of research with children, 160–161
 - ethnographic research with children and centrality of trust, 136–137
 - improving informed consent process with, 25
 - informed consent in research, 30–31
 - as knowledge producers, 6–8
 - movement, 125
 - positionality in family research, 145–146
 - public exposure and reward, 159–160
 - research design, 31
 - social competence, 23
 - transdisciplinary approach to school journey, 152–155
 - visual methods, 31–32
 - and young people's participation in research, 3–5
- Children's Assessment of Participation Enjoyment (CAPE), 173
- Children's consent
- challenges of, 15–16
 - strategy to support, 16–18
- Children's rights, 30, 34, 152
- conceptualisations of, 169–170

- 'Children's Voices in Polish Canon Wars', 214
- Citizenship, 216
- Co-design case study, 176
- Co-expertise, 161–162
- Co-researchers, 160
- Co-working sessions, 157–159
- Collaborative academic writing with young researchers, 215
 - participatory research with children, 215–216
- Collaborative writing with child researchers, challenges of, 220–222
- Collective creation, 206–210
- Collectivistic model of academic writing with children, 222–224
- Communicate-listen-respond model, 216
- Communication skills, 117
- Community, dissemination to, 178
- Competence, 16
- Competency framework, 30
- Compositional approach, 224
- Confidentiality, 2, 4–5, 16, 19, 34, 48, 63–64, 91–92, 136, 143, 229
 - participant, 143–145
- Consent, 19, 30, 47, 61–62, 107, 126–128, 139–145
 - actively giving and withdrawing, 32–34
 - processes with children, 20–24
- Constructivist approaches, 200
- Contemporary anxieties, 46
- Continuing colonial imperialism, 108
- COVID-19 pandemic, 1, 230
- Creating process, 204
- Creative methods, 2
- Creative strategies, 17
- Critical disability studies, 75
 - employing as theory and analytical framework, 75
- Critical ethical reflexivity, 3
- Critical reflexivity, 125
- Decision-making processes, 14
- Democracy, 202
- Deviancy, 106
- Devised theatre, 206–210
- Diamond Ranking* activity, 158, 160–161
- Digital devices, 45
- Digital gatekeepers, 50
- Digital technologies, 2, 50
 - young people and, 44
- Disability, 74
 - children and, 81–82
 - and ethically informed quantitative research approaches, 81
 - evolving frameworks related to, 83
 - theory, 75
- Disabled childhoods, 75
- Disabled children, 74
 - differing categorisations of children and disability, 81–82
 - disability and ethically informed quantitative research approaches, 81
 - employing critical disability studies as theory and analytical framework, 75
 - ethical dilemmas, 74–75
 - ethics of research with, 76–78
 - evolving frameworks related to disability, 83
 - qualitative methodologies for reducing power inequities, 79
 - as research participants, 75–76
 - safeguarding methods to avoid eliciting further trauma, 79–80
 - thinking ethically around research methods and forms of analysis, 78–79
- Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS), 60
- Dissemination, 177–178
 - participation vs. protection in, 178–179
- Doing ethics, 115
- Dominant international development, 92

- Drama-based dissemination approaches, 201
- Drama-based research method, 200–202
- ethnodrama and ethnotheatre, 202–205
 - moving forward, 210–211
 - play-building, devised theatre and collective creation, 206–210
 - readers' theatre, 205–206
- Drawings, 31, 76
- Economic and Social Research Council (ESRC), 58
- Educational research, 153
- Educational theories, 30
- Emancipatory principles, 74
- Emotional relationships, 106
- Emotions, 3, 5–6, 58, 65–67
- Empathy, 130
- Empowerment, 202
- Ethical approval, 125
- Ethical briefing, 114
- Ethical concepts, 16, 18
- Ethical considerations
- in participatory play-building research, 208–210
 - in research with children, 170–172
- Ethical principles, 184–185
- Ethical reflexivity, 3, 230
- and youth research, 109–110
- Ethical research, 16, 122
- Ethical research in prison environment, 62–64
- Ethical Research Involving Children, 2
- Ethically informed quantitative research approaches, disability and, 81
- Ethically sensitive research
- age-determined constructions of childhood/adulthood status, 58–59
 - consent, 61–62
 - emotions, 65–67
 - engaging participants, 64–65
 - ethical research in prison environment, 62–64
 - ethics in research with incarcerated children, 59–60
 - negotiating access, 60–61
- Ethics, 5–6, 229
- antisocial behaviour and young people in Scotland, 110–112
 - of authenticity and representation in ethnodrama and ethnotheatre, 204–205
 - ethical reflexivity and youth research, 109–110
 - in ethnography, 107
 - informed consent, 77–78
 - of Navi gating research context, 94–97
 - recruitment and access, 76–77
 - of representation and research dissemination, 6–8
 - of representing children's data in analyses, 176–177
 - research ethics and young people, 107–108
 - of research with child migrants in Ghana, 186–192
 - of research with children, 160–161
 - of research with disabled children, 76
 - in research with incarcerated children, 59–60
 - in research with young migrants, 185–186
 - review of Adivasi youth 'voices', 91–92
 - review processes, 229
 - walking tightrope, 108–110
 - working towards balanced approach, 115–117
 - young people and happiness in Laos, 112–114
- Ethnodrama, 202–205
- Ethnographic research, 107
- with children and centrality of trust, 136–137
 - methods, 92
- Ethnographic study, children engagement in

- actively giving and withdrawing consent, 32–34
- children's reflections on participation in research, 37–39
- co-producing and co-analysing field notes, 34–37
- informed consent in research, 30–31
- research design, 31
- visual methods, 31–32
- Ethnography, 107
 - ethics in, 107–117
- Ethnotheatre, 202–205
- Exploratory approach, 106
- Eye-gaze technology, 81
- Families in confidential research processes, 74
- Family research, negotiating trust in, 139–145
- Feminist theories, 100
- Fieldwork, 109, 146*n*3
- Financial 'inducements', 48–49, 172, 191
- Financial compensation, 48–49, 194
- Financial payments, 191
- Fit for purpose, 168
- Focus group discussions (FGDs), 91–92, 96
- Focus groups, 1, 3
- Formal ethical approval processes, 125
- Formal ethics review procedures, 109
- Gatekeepers, 61, 126, 139–145
- Gendered power dynamics, 51
- General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), 38
- Global positioning system (GPS), 173
- Go-along walking interviews, 173–176
- Gubar's kinship model of childhood, 217
- Happiness, 106
- Health and social sciences, 1
- Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Prisons (HMCIP), 58
- Her Majesty's Inspectorate of Prisons/ Probation (HMIP), 58, 65
- Her Majesty's Prisons and Probation Service (HMPPS), 68*n*3
- Heterogeneity of migrants, 184
- Hierarchy of Impairment, 82, 84*n*1
- Historical calendars, 188
- Humanities, 1
- Identity, 90
 - markers, 48
- Igbo language, 52
- Impressions, 65
- Imprisonment, 59
- In-depth interviews, 92
- Inaccessible research methods, 76
- Independent Research Fund Denmark, 138
- Individualisation, 93
- Indonesian children
 - challenges of children's consent, 15–16
 - development and use of story and storytelling for supporting informed consent, 18–20
 - ethical research with children, 14–15
 - improving informed consent process with children, 25
 - narrative–interactive approach, 16–18
 - reflections on opportunities and challenges of narrative–interactive approach, 20–24
- Influence, 160
- Information disclosure, 47
- Informed assent process, 47–48, 77, 172
- Informed consent process, 2, 14, 16, 42, 47–48, 77–78, 91, 124, 189, 229
 - development and use of story and storytelling for supporting, 18–20
 - improving informed consent process with children, 25
- Inherent imbalance, 122

- Inherent power dynamics, 65
 Inquiry, 200
 Insensitivity, 108
 Institutional ethical protocols, 106
 Institutional Review Boards (IRBs), 2
 Integrity, 229
 in research with child migrants, 192–194
 in research with young migrants, 185–186
 Interdisciplinary approach, 152
 International Childhood and Youth Research Network (INCRYNet), 216
 International development and economics, 1
International Journal of Qualitative Methods, 219
 Internet, 45
 Interpersonal trust, 137
 Interviews, 1, 3

 Kidults, 46

 Language problem, 52
 Left-Wing Extremism, 90
 Lego models, 31
 Light-bulb moment, 214
 Longitudinal ethnography, 31

 Maoist movement, 91
 Marginalisation, 51
 Material violence, 136
 Mayne's approach, 15
 Media, young people and, 45–46
Middle Place, The, 203
 Middle youth, 46
 Middle-class children, 220
 Migrant groups, 184
 Migration and childhood status, 186–189
 ethical principles, 184–185
 ethics and integrity in research with young migrants, 185–186
 ethics of research with child migrants in Ghana, 186–192 patterns, 184
 research, 184
 research ethics and integrity
 in research with child migrants, 192–194
 Ministries of Education, 50
 Mixed methods approach, 49, 58
Motivation and Justice, 208, 210

 Naming disability, 75
 Narrative–interactive approach, 16–18
 reflections on opportunities and challenges of, 20–24
 National Offender Management Service (NOMS), 60
 National Research Committee (NRC), 60
 Naturalistic inquiry, 90
 Negotiating access, 60–61
 Negotiating trust in childhood and family research, 139–145
 New Zealand (NZ), 168
 Nigeria
 access and recruitment, 126 consent, assent and participation, 126–128 research with child street traders in, 125 researcher positionality, 130–131
 sensitive research, 128–130
 Nigerian Pidgin English (NPE), 127
 Non-Governmental Organisation (NGO), 91, 189
 Non-maleficence, 48
 Non-verbal techniques, 17, 76

 Observation, 3, 31
 techniques, 1
 Online platforms, 2
 Online video, 18
 Ontology, 76
 Oral communication, 76, 156
 Other Backward Class communities (OBC communities), 90–91
 Ownership, 50

- Parental consent, 30, 189
- Parents/legal guardians, absence of, 189–190, 193
- Participants, 107, 123–124, 126–128, 136
 confidentiality, 143–145
 in dissemination, 178–179
 dissemination to, 177–178
 emotions, 106
 engaging, 64–65
 observations, 31
- Participatory data collection methods, 152
- Participatory methods, 2, 30, 79, 152
- Participatory play-building research, ethical considerations in, 208–210
- Participatory research, 108
- Participatory visual methods, 31
- Participatory youth-led play creation process, 207
- Particularly Vulnerable Tribal Group, 90
- People with Disabilities Australia (PWDA), 75
- Performance, 201
- Performative inquiry, 200
- Performative methods, 2
- Photo-elicitation, 2
- Photovoice, 76
- Physical violence, 136
- Planners, dissemination to, 178
- Play-building, 206–210
- Playwrights, 205
- Policymakers, dissemination to, 178
- Polish Ministry of National Education, 214
- Popularisation of participatory approaches, 108
- Positionality, 90, 106
 adult/child power relations and, 5–6
- Post-transition, 58
 interviews, 61, 66
- Postcolonial Indian context, 90
- Postcolonial theories, 100
- Poststructuralism, 100
- Power, 106, 122
 in childhood research, 123–124
 imbalances, 51
 qualitative methodologies for reducing, 79 relations, 81
- Practical approaches, 58
- Pre-transition, 58
 interview, 66
- Precarity, 90
- Preferences for activities with children scale (PAC), 173
- Principals, 76
- Principles, 156
- Prisons, 59, 61–62
- Privacy, 2, 4–5, 18–19, 34, 46, 64, 136, 143, 229
- Procedural ethics, 108
- Procedural research ethics, 3, 229
- Process-oriented model of academic writing with children, 222–224
- Productive Remembering of Polish Childhoods', 215
- Protection, 123–124
 in dissemination, 178–179
- Provision, 123
- Psychological violence, 136
- Psychology, 1
- Public exposure and reward, 159–160
- Qualitative methodologies, 75 for reducing power inequities, 79
- Qualitative research, 108, 137, 200
- Qualitative studies, 74
- Quantitative collection tool, 81
- Quantitative methodologies, 75
- Questionnaires, 3, 81
- Re-framing impairment, 83
- Readers theatre, 205–206
- Reciprocity, 210
- Recruitment and access, 76–77, 126
 processes, 171–172
- Reflections of Tomorrow*, 207

- Reflexivity, 109–110, 130
- Representation ethics, 171–172
in ethnodrama and ethnotheatre,
204–205
- Research dissemination, 177, 207
- Research ethics, 2, 47
communicating, 115–116
in research with child migrants,
192–194
and young people, 107–108
- Research Ethics Boards, 83
- Research Ethics Committees (RECs),
2, 106, 108
- Research literacy, 124
- Research methodology, 75
- Research methods, 49–50
- Research participants, disabled children as, 75–76
- Research skills, 161
- Research vision and reality, 116–117
- Research with children ethical considerations in, 170 ethics of, 160–161
ethics of representation, 171–172
financial ‘inducements’, 172 informed assent/consent, 172 project conception, 170–171
research context, 170
- Research-based play, 203–204
- Researcher positionality, 130–131, 141–143
implications for, 97–100
- Rights in childhood research, 123–124
- Rights-based approaches, 125, 156
- Risks, 16, 18, 137
- Ruang Publik Terpadu Ramah Anak*
(RPTRA), 15, 20
- Safeguarding methods to avoid eliciting
further trauma, 79–80
- Sampling, 49–50
- Scheduled Tribe (ST), 90–91
- School-based ethnography, 107
- School-based recruitment processes, 171
- Secure training centres (STCs), 68n2
- Self-awareness, 117
- Semi-structured in-depth interviews, 91
- Sensitive research, 128–130
trust in, 136–146
- Sensitivities in research with child migrants, 190–192
- Shaming stories, 80
- Sign language, 76, 172
- Situated ethics, 184
- Skills, 44
- Social justice, 208
- Social media, 45
- Socio-cultural norms, 186
- Sociological theories, 30
- South Africa, 47
- Space, 160
- Stigmatisation, 210
- Story for supporting informed
consent, 18–20
- Storytelling, 21, 25
process, 17–18
for supporting informed consent,
18–20
- Stress, 223
- Sub-Saharan Africa, 124
- Survey, 81
- Tackling Ableism*, 178
- Task based activities, 107
- Teachers, 17, 49
- Techno-shame, 45, 53
- Technology, 45
- Tick box mentality, 53, 110
- Traditional research methods, 1
- Transdisciplinary collaborative research, 152
- Transdisciplinary research, 152
- Transforming Experience*, 206
- Transitions, 58
- Trauma, 66
- Trust, 3, 122, 136
building of, 5–6
in childhood research, 123–124
children’s positionality in family
research, 145–146

- context and methods, 138–139
 ethnographic research with children and centrality of, 136–137 negotiating trust in childhood and family research, 139–145
 Trustworthiness, 124
 Truth, 200
 Tweenagers, 46

 Union territory (UT), 101*n*1
 United Nations (UN), 1, 46
 United Nations Convention on Rights of Child (UNCRC), 1, 14,
 46, 123, 168–169, 187, 229
 Universal logics, 93

 Variable-sum model, 106
 Verbal consent, 91
 Vice-principals, 76
 Vignette structure, 207
 Violence, 136, 139
 Visual and creative methods, 3
 Visual methods, 31–32, 139
 Visual resources, 172
 Visual stories, 25
 Voice, 160
 Voluntariness, 16, 18
 Vulnerability, 66
 in research with child migrants,
 190–192
 Vulnerable groups, 108

 Warm approach, 48
 Whilst impairment, 75
 Writing ethics, 115
 Writing process, 216–218
 sustainability of, 220–221
 Written forms of communication, 76

 Young ‘voices’, 90
 Young migrant, 184

 ethics and integrity in research with, 185–186
 Young Offenders’ Institutions (YOIs),
 58, 61, 63–64
 Young participants, negotiating access to, 50–51
 Young people, 106
 and happiness in Laos, 112–114
 as knowledge producers, 6–8
 and media, 45–46
 research ethics and, 107–108
 in Scotland, 110–112
 Young voices, construction of, 92–94
 Youth, construction of, 92–94
 Youth research, 108
 ethical reflexivity and, 109–110
 Youth-centred research, 44–45 (see also Child-centred research;
 Drama-based research method)
 confidentiality, 48
 ethical considerations, 47 ethical moments, dilemmas and potential solutions, 51–53 financial compensation and inducements, 48–49
 information disclosure, 47
 informed assent and consent, 47–48
 negotiating access to young
 participants, 50–51
 potential harm to participants and institutions, 48
 potentials of, 46–47
 research methods and sampling,
 49–50
 young people and digital technologies, 44
 young people and media, 45–46
 YouTube, 18